

These are the subject matters covered in this course.

- A basic understanding of the adult industry structure
 - Performer Rights
 - Talent Safety
 - Sexual Harassment
 - Talent Agents
 - Working with Production Companies
 - A basic primer on social media
 - The laws regarding creating your own content
 - Extensive STD/STI information (Herpes, HPV, HIV/AIDS, Gonorrhea, Syphilis)
 - Adult Industry Testing Protocols
 - Breast Cancer awareness
 - Human Trafficking
 - The laws regarding 2257s and Model Releases Forms
 - Saving Money and Paying Taxes
-
- The media loves to portray the adult industry as some sort of free for all. But in fact, there are some very strict rules to being in porn because they involve the law and trust me when I say, the government takes these rules very seriously. The rest, however, are less "rules" and more guidelines.
 -

You must be 18 or older and be able to prove it

There is never an exception to this rule. The law is very clear on this matter. You must be over 18 years of age, period. But just being over 18 years of age isn't enough. You also must be able to prove it and that means having a valid ID and in some cases two or three forms.

Depending on your age and the company you work with., some companies, especially those in Florida who have had issues in the past may ask you for up to three forms of Government-issued ID.

But for the most part, to work in porn, you must have at least two forms of valid, government-issued ID. These can be things like a driver's license, a state-issued ID card, and/or a passport. You will also need a social security card. If you don't have them, you will need to get them.

- Valid forms of ID mean something issued from the United States Government that has your photo on it such as a Driver's license, a State ID card, or a United States Passport. Things that won't work are things like a school ID, a library card, or utility bill. Those may work for some people, but not for the purposes of porn production.
 - Be clean and stay clean
 - You must be STD free to work in the adult industry and you will need to provide a new test proving you are clean every 14 days. You will learn more about STD's and the adult industry testing protocol in future lessons. But for now, just know that you can't work if you are sick or if you have an STD of any kind. Even if you have a clean test. Don't go to work when your body is compromised. Knowingly giving someone an STD can be a criminal offense and land you in jail.
-

Porn Genres

Performer Training Porn Genres

In Progress

People often use the term "adult industry" as if we were just one big unit. But in reality, our industry is made up of a variety of sections that often times are as unrelated as you can possibly get. The only thing that really keeps us together as a whole unit is that in the end we all somehow get naked.

This is a problem because often times politicians and the media lump us all together as one big unit. We aren't. Not even close. For clarification purposes today I'm going to try and break down the main categories of the industry however keep in mind there are even sub-sets of these branches that also have their own rules, standards, and practices. If you work in the adult industry as a performer, you'll typically pick one of the 5 sections as listed below.

Straight porn

This is what is most well-known and is often referred to as “mainstream porn”. These are your typical boy/girl type scenes between a boy and a girl and sometimes a girl’s best friend and her stepbrother. Hey, it’s porn. What can I say?

BBW porn

This is similar to straight porn but involves women who are on the larger size, typically 150 pounds or more. This genre of porn has its own production rules, its own end-user market, and its own awards show.

Gay porn

This is porn made between two men, or sometimes three or four and sometimes a girl may even be thrown in the mix just for fun. This segment of the adult industry has its own rules, structures, production, awards, and is completely unrelated to the straight side. Please note that girl on girl is not classified as gay porn. It fits under the mainstream category.

Transgender porn

This genre of porn covers any production that involves anyone who has transgender M or F. Some consider this a sub-genre of straight porn or a sub-genre of gay porn but in fact, they have their own distinct market of consumers, their own production teams and even their own awards show.

BDSM / Fetish porn

BDSM or Fetish porn can sometimes take place within the other genres but this particular category I'm referring to is for companies like Wasteland, Severe Films, or Kink. Its porn made only for a specific market and sometimes may not even involve actual sexual penetration. BDSM is a world all its own with its own production niches and rates and fetishes and rules.

Now that you understand the basics of how the adult industry is divided, I wanted to clarify that no one genre is better than the other. There are fans who like BBWs, and there are fans who like to watch males have sex with males. There is no segment of the industry that is better than others, we are just different.

Porn is a business and just like how you go to a store and search for clothes, you have a certain type of clothes that you like while the guy standing next to you likes another kind. It doesn't mean that the kind of clothes you like is somehow better than the clothes the other guy likes –, it's just different.

There is no such thing as a porn hierarchy. We are all the same – sex workers.

Each segment of the industry has their own awards shows as well.

- The mainstream industry has the AVN Awards, the PornHub Awards, the Nightmoves Awards, the XBIZ Awards, the XRCO Awards, and the Fleshbot awards (those are the main ones).
- The gay industry has the GayVN awards. They might have others, but I only know of that one.
- The BBW segment has the BBW awards.
- Then there is the transgender erotica awards.
- Then there is the UrbanX awards, specifically to honor performers of colors.

While it's true the AVN awards is probably the biggest and gets the most mainstream attention, you need to understand that it's no more or less important than the other award shows.

If you are not a BBW then you are not likely to get a nomination for the BBW awards. Nor will you be likely to walk the BBW Awards red carpet.

If you do not work in the gay porn industry, you are not likely to get a nomination for the GayVN awards. Nor will you likely be invited to walk the GayVN awards red carpet.

If you don't work in mainstream porn you aren't likely to get a nomination for the AVN awards. And guess what? If you don't work in mainstream porn, you aren't likely to get invited to walk the AVN Awards show red carpet.

The AVN Awards and a few others offer some honors for categories outside of their main segment, like AVN's award for favorite trans cam performer. But you have to remember, the AVN awards is a show meant to honor those who work specifically in the mainstream straight segment of porn. Just like the transgender erotica awards is meant to honor those who work in the trans segment of the adult industry.

the Transgender Erotica Awards (formerly known as The Tranny Awards) were created to recognize achievement in the transgender adult industry and the first awards were given out in 2009. I will never be invited to walk the red carpet for this show because it's not the segment of the industry I work in. I don't get offended because well, it doesn't make sense to include me in an awards show for a segment of the industry I don't work in.

As I had said previously, while the media loves to classify us as just the porn industry, we aren't really one cohesive unit. There are five specific segments (as defined above). So don't let people rile you up or hurt your feelings when they say things like I'm not included in this or that.

We aren't ONE industry – we really are five distinct industries, each with their own rules and regulations, governing bodies, testing policies, and awards shows.

That isn't a good or a bad thing. It's just how it is.

Now if you really want to get technical, within each of the 5 main categories of porn there are also other kinds

- Traditional professional performers
- Webcam performers
- Content creators

And then there are two types of content creators

- Professional
- Amateur

Traditional professional performers are your average porn stars who do scenes for all the companies like Brazzers, or Hustler.

Webcam performers are well, people who do webcam work only. Although you can be both – a traditional porn performer and a webcammer.

The last kind is what has become known as a content creator. This is someone who shoots their own content.

For example, Dillion Harper started in porn during webcam work. She then began modeling for magazines like Hustler and Penthouse and then began making adult movies for companies like Brazzers, Bang Bros, Mofos, Girlfriend Films, Digital Playground, etc.

Then one day she stopped working with traditional companies and now makes her own movies. She in other words, "creates her own content".

Here is the trailer for the scene she created called Dillion Loves Kit.

Video Player

00:00

00:33

Dillion Harper paid for her own location, hired Kit Mercer to do the scene with her, a director to film it (Jay Rock), as well as a production assistant and a makeup artist. This scene is no different than one you might find on any of a variety of sites. But the difference is, she paid to produce it, and it's hers. She owns the rights to it 100%.

She can do whatever she wants with the scene. She makes money by sharing it with her fans on sites like OnlyFans and her official website Dillion Nation.

Sometimes two performers come together and do what is called a content trade. This means that instead of hiring a person to do a scene with you, you both do it for free and then you both own the rights to it. But we'll get more into content trades in another lesson.

I really just wanted to point out that there are different types of performers and sometimes a person can be two or all three kinds within their given segment and heck for that matter, sometimes you can even work in more than one segment.

A mainstream performer may also do fetish porn or maybe performer a scene or two with a person who is transgendered.

Case in point – let's look at the movie Adriana Chechik is the Squirt Queen. This is a movie released by Evil Angel and it technically falls under the mainstream porn genre. But in one of the scenes Adriana Chechik performers with Aubrey Kate so it also falls under the transgendered porn genre.

So to wrap things up I hope that the one thing you took from this lesson is that there are many types of porn – no one is better than the other, it's just different. In other words, there is something for everyone.

Reputation

Performer Training Reputation

In Progress

Let me just sum up this entire lesson in these three words Your Reputation Matters!

The adult industry is a lot smaller than you think and everyone talks, especially if they run into a problem with someone.

One day a girl posted her profile on the Model Mayhem website in order to try and find work. A company liked what they saw and decided to hire her for a four-day shoot. The content producer booked and paid for her flight round trip from Phoenix to Las Vegas, two months in advance.

According to this girl that was the soonest, she could get out because she was so much in demand.

The model continued to communicate with him until the day before the flight. Suddenly she stopped talking to him in all forms, email, text, phone calls, everything. Even stranger, she temporarily suspended her own Model Mayhem account.

A few weeks later she reinstated her model mayhem profile like nothing ever happened. To this day she never responded to the producer in question, never answering a single question as to why she did what she did. The producer had to eat the $550 for that plane ticket.

Fast forward a few months and the girl is now back. A new producer tries to book her for a trip to Los Angeles where he will pay her for six days' worth of work, including all her travel and lodging.

Two of the days of her trip were to be in the infamous California Foothills. The producer booked an expensive and non-refundable room for those two days of the shoot. He also bought her roundtrip ticket from Phoenix to Los Angeles.

She supposedly missed her flight and claimed she would catch the next one. This happens more often than not, so the producer wasn't too worried. But she missed the next flight too, and the next day she changed her story to something about her friend who was supposed to take her.

For two days she goes back and forth, absolutely swearing she was going to get there. Eventually, she just stopped communicating at all.

As this producer is posting his story about his experience with this girl another producer realizes it's the very girl he was about to book for a multi-page spread in a major men's magazine. He immediately canceled and moved on to a more stable model.

Flaking out on those previous jobs cost her big time.

Stories like this in the adult industry are not uncommon. I tell you this because I want to explain that everything you do will be found out by everyone else. The adult industry isn't as big as you might think and everyone talks to everyone else and we even have industry-specific message boards where we post about problems like these online.

So when you book a shoot with anyone, show up on time and leave your attitude and problems at home. Don't show up high.

Make sure you show up clean – that means take a shower and wash your hair.

If you have a problem on set, don't freak out. Go to the bathroom or step outside and privately and quietly call your agent.

Let your agent handle the problem for you and that way they look like the bad guy, not you.

The Downside of Being in Porn

Performer Training The Downside of Being in Porn

In Progress

Listen to me when I tell you that being in porn isn't always a bed of roses. Sure the money can be great but there are some very serious issues you also need to consider.

I'm not going to lie; there are a lot of great things about being in porn. Not only do you make a lot of money for the amount of time you have to be at work, but you also get lots of bonus gifts from fans including crazy expensive clothes and shoes. Who wouldn't love that? Then there are the trips and extra bonuses. Sometimes you'll get lucky and land a primo role in a high budget movie then get flown around the world to promote said movie.

But it's not all fun and games. Not even close.

Before you become a porn star, I want you to think long and hard about your decision. There is a downside to being in porn. It's not all glitz and glamor and good times.

Being a porn star is often a great way to make money, but it has long-standing consequences that so many people don't think of at the time.

For the rest of your life, you will always be judged by the time you did porn. The more famous you are, the worse it will be. Girls like The Love Twins (identical twin porn stars) were only in the business for a few years, but they quickly rose to fame because of the unique nature of ... well, they were identical twin sisters. How can you not love that? They were in magazines and even became exclusive contract girls for Vivid. It was all great for them at the time. They made amazing money doing what they did.

They spent their porn money to go to school and do some kind of nursing thing. In the end though, even with their degrees in hand they still found co-workers would discriminate against them because of their porn past.

After trying something like five different jobs in their field, they finally just gave up and decided to do medical transcription work from home. The sad part is, they worked hard for their degrees and were proud of what they accomplished, without any student loans. Not many people can say that!

But people are the way they are. They know you did porn and they will sometimes be downright nasty to you about it. It's sad, but it's also a fact of life, especially with female co-workers. I don't know why so many girls are so nasty to other females in the workplace, but they are.

Some people just don't care. They are confident enough with their life decisions to know that what other people think don't matter. And for those people, porn is probably not going to be a problem for you.

But if you ever want to leave porn and be a school teacher, or a politician. Well, it's probably just not going to happen. And that is what I want you to keep in mind before you decide if doing porn is right for you. Because once you film a scene, it's out there forever. There is no taking it back. There is no getting it removed.

I'm not trying to say do not do porn. I'm just saying THINK ABOUT IT FIRST. If you've considered all the options – what your family will think, what your friends will think, what your future co-workers will think. Then move forward, knowing you actually thought long and hard about it first.

Be Careful of Con-Men and Fraud

Performer Training Be Careful of Con-Men and Fraud

In Progress

Some performers choose to try and book their own work instead of working with a talent agent. The problem with that is, that leaves them wide open for potential fraudsters, especially if the girl is new to the industry and doesn't know the things to watch out for. People pretending to work for companies to scam girls is common.

Last August there was a man going by the name of Dave Northrop claiming that he works for a company called Third World Media. Third World Media is, in fact, a real porn studio, but Dave Northrop, not so much. I'm going to share with you a real email he was sending out to girls who were trying to book their own scenes through social media and the Sexy Jobs website. Then after I'll show you how to catch scammers like this guy. I'm also going to highlight some of the parts of his email that should catch your attention.

THANKS FOR RESPONDING TO MY INQUIRY ABOUT SOME UPCOMING WORK. I AM EXCITED ABOUT POSSIBLY BOOKING YOU FOR PROJECTS I HAVE IN NY. PLEASE REVIEW THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION I HAVE OUTLINED BELOW FOR YOU TO GET AN UNDERSTANDING OF UPCOMING PROJECTS.

I WILL BE FILMING ABOUT 6-8 SHOOTS IN THE NEXT FEW WEEKS. I TEND TO COME OUT THERE TWICE A MONTH TO FILM, ALTERNATING BETWEEN THE EAST AND WEST COAST. THE PAY FOR THE 1 BOY / GIRL SCENE STARTS AT $1200.00 AND CAN GO UP DEPENDING ON YOU LIMITATIONS. IF YOU ARE LOOKING FOR A LITTLE EXTRA WORK THE SAME DAY OF YOUR SHOOT WE CAN ADD AN ADDITIONAL BLOWJOB SCENE AS WELL.

PAY FOR THE EXTRA SCENE IS $800. ADDITIONALLY, YOU WILL BE PAID $800.00 FOR YOUR WORK ON THE NON FILMED REHEARSAL WITH YOUR ON-SCREEN PARTNER PRIOR TO THE MAIN SHOOT. IN TOTAL, YOUR COMPENSATION WILL BE AT LEAST $2800

IF YOU DID BOTH SCENES. AS YOU WOULD EXPECT, CASH IS PAID IN FULL THE DAY OF THE SHOOT. PLEASE LET ME KNOW IF YOU WANT THE SCENES ASAP SO WE CAN START EXPLORING POSSIBLE DATES.

A LITTLE ABOUT US – THIRD WORLD MEDIA IS A NJ BASED PRODUCTION COMPANY THAT PRODUCES ITS OWN CONTENT AS WELL AS CONTENT FOR SOME OF THE BIGGEST NAMES IN THE INDUSTRY. FOR THE MOST PART THE CONTENT IS FOR MEMBERS-ONLY, PAID WEBSITE ENVIRONMENTS. IF THE CONTENT YOUR ARE INVOLVED WITH WILL BE FOR DVD PRODUCTION THERE IS HIGHER PAY FOR SUCH EXPOSURE, TYPICALLY IN THE FORM OF LARGER INITIAL PAY OR ROYALTY OPTIONS. THE FILMS WE ARE PLANNING FOR RIGHT NOW ARE FOR WEB ONLY THOUGH. ANYWAYS, WE PRODUCE SOME OF THE MOST TREND SETTING AND POPULAR ADULT CONTENT ON THE INTERNET. WHILE A SMALLER COMPANY, WE ALWAYS MAKE SURE EVERYONE THAT WORKS WITH US HAS A UNPARALLELED EXPERIENCE. THIS STARTS WITH

COMPETITIVE INDUSTRY APPROPRIATE PAY AND THE OPTION FOR RECURRING WORK SHOULD THAT BE SOMETHING YOU ARE LOOKING FOR.

MORE SPECIFICALLY IN TERMS OF THE NON FILMED REHEARSAL. WE TRY TO TAKE THE HIGH END APPROACH, NOT ONLY FOR OUR MEDIA, BUT THE MEDIA FOR OUR CLIENTS. ULTIMATELY I AM TRYING TO PORTRAY THE TWO OF YOU AS A COUPLE ON FILM. THIS IS USUALLY HARD TO ACCOMPLISH.

THE GOAL BEHIND GOING THIS ROUTE IT THE TWO OF YOU WILL ACTUALLY HAVE CHEMISTRY ON SCREEN, COMPARED TO THE TYPICAL AWKWARDNESS THAT USUALLY IS THERE. THIS NOT ONLY RESULTS IN SUPERIOR CONTENT, BUT IT ALSO MAKES FOR A MUCH FASTER SHOOT. I ALSO CONSIDER THIS GOOD INSURANCE THAT YOU WILL ACTUALLY PERFORM. THE LAST THING I WOULD WANT TO DO WOULD BE SET

EVERYTHING UP ONLY TO HAVE A SHOOT BUST. SIMPLY, TIME IS MONEY AND I LIKE TO WORK FAST. I HOPE YOU UNDERSTAND THAT. WHENEVER POSSIBLE I LIKE TO SHOOT A FULL 25-30 MINUTE SCENE WITHOUT STOPPING. A WHOLE SHOOT RARELY EXCEEDS 3 HOURS. IN THE END I FEEL IT DELIVERS A MUCH MORE RAW, BELIEVABLE EXPERIENCE FOR CLIENTS AND CUSTOMERS. PRIOR TO FILMING, I WOULD LIKE YOU AND YOUR SELECTED PARTNER TO GET TOGETHER TO REHEARSE THE SCENES, RUN THROUGH ALL THE POSITIONS, ETC. I'LL SEND YOU OVER SCRIPT DETAILS AS SOON AS YOU LET ME KNOW YOU WANT THE GIG.

THE MODEL I HAD IN MIND TO PAIR YOU WITH IS WELL-KNOWN MALE TALENT, TYLER. HE IS BASED OUT OF BROOKLYN AND A RELIABLE, EXPERIENCED PERFORMER. ADDITIONALLY, I WILL BE SENDING YOU OVER A QUESTIONNAIRE TO FIND OUT SOME MORE DETAILS OF YOUR COMFORT LEVELS. FROM THERE THIS WILL HELP ME UNDERSTAND WHAT YOUR DO'S AND DON'T'S ARE WITH REGARDS TO FILMING. THIS WILL HELP ME PUT TOGETHER THE PROPER SCRIPTING THAT RESPECTS YOUR BOUNDARIES

AND MOST IMPORTANTLY CREATES QUALITY CONTENT. AS SOON AS I GET THIS BACK, WE SHOULD SET UP A CALL TO ANSWER ANY QUESTIONS YOU MAY HAVE AND GO OVER MORE DETAILS. WHEN IS A GOOD TIME TO CALL YOU? HOPE TO HEAR BACK FROM YOU AND POSSIBLE WORK ON A PROJECT TOGETHER.

DAVID NORTHROP
(858) 952-1286
EXECUTIVE PRODUCER
WWW.THIRDWORLDXXX.COM

The guy gives a phone number, and email address, and his mistake, a link to the company he claims to represent. On the surface, this letter may seem legit, especially to a new girl in the industry who doesn't know better.

This guy is offering higher than average LA rates for a scene being shot in New York. LA rates are the highest, and New York rates are usually the lowest. So that right there should be a red flag. Anytime anyone for any reason is offering you more than what the average company is paying that should alert you to something being off.

Next, the guy offers a bonus of $800 for a blowjob scene. There is nobody, not even in Los Angeles who pays the amazing amount of $800 for a blowjob scene, especially if the girl is new to the industry. If anyone were actually paying $800 for a blowjob scene, girls would line up a mile long for that. It just isn't happening in LA, New York, or anywhere else for that matter. Next, he hints that the performer could get royalties. RED FLAG ALERT! Nobody ever pays royalties to a performer in porn. Period. Never, ever, ever.

Next, there is the mention of a non-filmed rehearsal of which he is going to pay the performer $800. This one made me laugh pretty hard. I would hope that this alone would clue in enough girls to not fall for his scam. But just in case I should point out there is no such thing as having sex with a guy off camera that you get paid for it. That's called escorting, and it's illegal.

If some guy wants to pay you to have sex with him and not film it (to be released for commercial production), it is illegal. Next, the email mentions a well-known male talent named Tyler. I've been in this business for over 20 years, and I've never heard of him, but for fun, I decided to do my research.

There are lots of male talent who over the years that have used the name Tyler as part of their stage name but only three who just went by Tyler, and none of those guys have performed in a long time. So exactly how well known can the guy be if nobody has ever heard of him and there is no recorded trace of his existence out of more than 143,000 porn stars listed at the IAFD.com website? I even tried to find him on FreeOnes.com and Google.

In the end, I knew this was a fake, but just for shits and giggles, I decided to reach out to the owner of Third World Media, who by the way is a California-based company, not based in New York or New Jersey as this guy suggested. As you might have imagined, they have never heard of this guy.

He is not an executive producer for them, and he has nothing whatsoever to do with their company. This company also went on to tell me they only shoot in California. They have nobody they work with in New York.

WHAT ALL OF THIS COMES DOWN TO IS, LEARN TO TRUST YOUR INSTINCTS. IF SOMETHING SOUNDS TOO GOOD TO BE TRUE, IT PROBABLY IS!

Even more importantly, if you aren't sure, ask other performers. Use Twitter to reach out to others in the industry and ask questions. And always, always get references. Don't trust some random guy you meet off the internet.

Going on a Go-See

Performer Training Going on a Go-See

In Progress

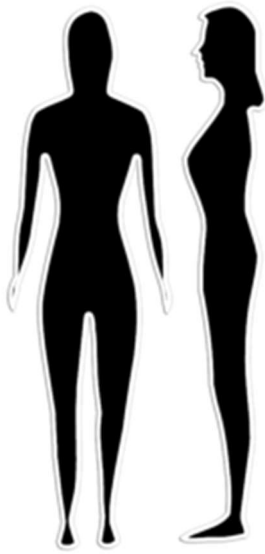

Now let's talk about getting cast in adult movies.

When you are new to the adult industry, your agent will send you out to go and meet some producers and directors face to face. These are simply meet and greets. A go-see is not the same thing as a "casting couch".

There is no such thing as a casting couch in porn. You aren't going to have sex with anyone. A Go See simply means you are sent to a location to visit with people in charge of making casting decisions for a company. They will want to see you nude, but you are not going to have sex with anyone or give any sexual favors. They will, however, take some casting photos of you and this often means nudity. You are after all trying to get a part in a porno.

This, however, doesn't mean it's okay for a casting agent or studio employee to touch you inappropriately or try and get a free blowjob. If this happens to speak up and tell your agent immediately.

When you are on a go-see, they will most likely ask you to remove your clothes so they can see what you really look like and they will probably take a few quick photos. This typically includes fully body nudes of your front, back, and sides and a few close-ups of your face and breasts if you are a female and cock if you are a male.

The whole process takes just a few minutes, ten minutes max.

You will want to look nice, but at the same time, you will want to wear clothes that are easy to get in and out of. For girls that means something like a sundress.

Girls wear full makeup, hair and yes, wear high heels. This is your chance to shine in front of the people who matter. They are deciding if they want to hire you or not for a scene with their company.

The hotter you look, the more likely they will be to hire you.

Take a shower. I don't know why I should have to say this, but apparently, I do. And for the love of all things holy, clean your nails.

Setting Boundaries

Performer Training Setting Boundaries

In Progress

In June of 2020, several female performers came out via social media to discuss the times that their boundaries had been violated while on set. This is never okay and if this happens to you I encourage you to speak up. If you have an agent go to him if you don't have an agent speak to groups like the Free Speech Coalition or the APAG Union (adult Performers Actors Guild). Please don't ever suffer in silence.

Prior to a scene, you should always establish your boundaries in advance. Our friends over at Wasteland.com and the APAG provided us with their versions of a consent checklist and we used both of their documents to make up our own. This consent checklist, allows you to say in writing what you are and are not okay with.

You can download a copy of our consent checklist by clicking here.

You should print it out, and bring it with you on set so that you can make sure the producer and your co-star understand exactly what you are and are not okay with. This allows you to set your boundaries for a scene in advance so there is no confusion.

When I first started working in the adult industry back in the late 1990s, there was this incredibly beautiful brunette named Chasey Lain. I was talking to a VP at the company she was under contract with about another unrelated issue and the subject of her came up. It was then he told me about her boundaries.

She didn't want you to come on her tits or her face. I had never heard of this boundaries list thing before and as fascinating. He explained to me how it all works and ever since then I had been a been proponent of the checklist.

I personally hate to be bit and well that's high on my no list. But you know, just because I don't like to be bit doesn't mean that others aren't okay with it. That's why the consent list has to be unique and specific to you.

You need to make it clear not only what you will do but what you absolutely no matter what you are not okay with.

Again if you don't want to make up your own, you can use a copy of the one we created by clicking here.

Performer No List

Performer Training Performer No List

In Progress

Every performer has the right to say no. It's your body, your choice. Having a "no" list will make your life easier, but just allowing your agents and producers to know who you are not comfortable working with.

A no list is simply a list of people you don't have to perform with.

You can put a person on your no list for any reason. You don't have to explain yourself or justify your reasons. You can put both males and females on your no list. The only thing that you shouldn't do is be racist and put an entire race of people on your no list based on the color of their skin. Well, I mean I guess you could, but it wouldn't be morally right to do so.

If you don't want to work with someone based on the size of their dick, the way they smell, or how they treated someone you know, then write their name on your list. You don't have to put why, all you need is their name.

Then turn your no list over to your agent (if you have one) or with any producer or director who would like to work with you.

I once knew a girl who put another girl on her no list, despite the fact that they were friends. Why? Well as her friend she knew the girl was a little on the wild side and would go to bars and bang random guys, oftentimes without a condom. To her, it just wasn't worth the risk of getting an STD from some rando that her friend hooked up with.

Anyway, the point I'm really trying to make is, your no list is personal to you. It's your body, your choice so you can put anyone you want on your no list and you don't have to explain why.

The Adult Performers Actors Guild

Performer Training The Adult Performers Actors Guild

In Progress

The Adult Performers Actors Guild or APAG for short is a union for performers in the adult industry that any current performer in adult films or webcamming can join.

Adult Performers Actors Guild

United We Bargain, Divided We Beg

The needs of performers in the adult industry are understood better by the men and women who have worked in the trenches, as performers in front of the camera. The demands of any industry can be difficult to understand by outsiders, but in the adult industry, actors and actresses are put into difficult situations every day. Members of A.P.A.G., including our officers and board, have made the decision to work together to make the adult industry a better place for performers now, and in the future. Coming together as one voice, the Adult Performers Actors Guild, we are able to create a plan to legitimize our industry.

We are working to ensure that performers are treated as employees. We will be helping to set up proper pay and benefits structures so that every performer has access to health insurance, disability, social security, and the means to see a financially secure future. While these issues may seem simple, a formality that most of today's society enjoys with their employment status, performers have been robbed of these basic necessities.

We are organizing to give performers a voice and support from their industry peers and to create a better performer, and a stronger industry. The goal of the Adult Performers

Actors Guild is to earn employee rights, set performer responsibilities, negotiate fair practices, and help performers provide themselves with a better future.

What is the Free Speech Coalition?

Performer Training What is the Free Speech Coalition?

In Progress

The Free Speech Coalition or the FSC for short is the North American Trade Association for the Adult Industry. Their mission is to protect the rights and freedoms of the adult industry.

Members of the FSC adhere to an industry-standard code of ethics that details our industry's commitments towards our people and those we serve through a responsible, ethical approach to pleasure products and adult entertainment. Although you don't have to join, anyone can join the Free Speech Coalition. In doing so you support the growth and well-being of the adult industry and the people that work in it.

Besides showing your support, there are many additional benefits to joining the FSC which includes access to the Teledoc service, roadside assistance, discounts on prescriptions, and even legal, vision, and dental benefits.

If you want to learn more about joining the Free Speech Coalition you should visit their official website at FreeSpeechCoalition.com.

If you would like to learn more about the FSC's PASS system, you can click here.

Sexual Harassment

Performer Training Sexual Harassment

In Progress

A few years ago the California department of labor requested licensed talent agents to start providing their models with sexual harassment training. It was then I wrote up this guide for our industry to use. This is a 10-page document that you can download and keep with you for future reference. This guide will give you a better understanding of what sexual harassment is and what to do about it if you could do it if you experience it.

You can click here to download this pdf.

Sexual harassment is only one type of harassment, and it, along with all other forms of harassment, should not be allowed in your workplace.

Harassment of any kind has no place in the workplace. If you're an employer subject to federal anti-discrimination laws, you have a legal obligation to provide a work environment that is free from intimidation, insult, or ridicule based on race, color, religion, gender, or national origin. You must also be concerned with preventing harassment because you can sometimes be sued in state courts, depending on your state's anti-discrimination laws.

Therefore, take steps to prevent and deal with sexual and other types of harassment in your workplace because as an employer, you may be held liable for your own acts of harassment that affect employees in the workplace, as well as the acts of your managers, employees, and even harassment by customers, suppliers, and others who regularly do business with you.

HOW TO RESPOND IF SOMEONE IS PRESSURING YOU

Perpetrators of sexual violence often use tactics, such as guilt or intimidation, to pressure a person into something they do not want to do. It can be upsetting, frightening, or uncomfortable if you find yourself in this situation. Remember that it's not your fault that the other person is acting this way—they are responsible for their own actions. The following tips may help you exit the situation safely.

SOURCE: RAINN.ORG

REMINDE YOURSELF THIS ISN'T YOUR FAULT. You did not do anything wrong. It is the person who is pressuring you who is responsible.

TRUST YOUR GUT. Don't feel obligated to do anything you don't want to do. It doesn't matter why you don't want to do something. Simply not being interested is reason enough. Do only what feels right to you and what you are comfortable with.

HAVE A CODE WORD. Develop a code with friends or family that means "I'm uncomfortable" or "I need help." It could be a series of numbers you can text, like "311." It might be a phrase you say out loud such as, "I wish we took more vacations." This way you can communicate your concern and get help without alerting the person who is pressuring you.

IT'S OKAY TO LIE. If you are concerned about angering or upsetting this person, you can lie or make an excuse to create an exit. It may feel wrong to lie, but you are never obligated to remain in a situation that makes you feel uncomfortable, scared, or threatened. Some excuses you could use are: needing to take care of a friend or family member, not feeling well, and having to be somewhere else by a certain time. Even excusing yourself to use the bathroom can create an opportunity to get away or to get help. Whatever you need to say to stay safe is okay—even if it may seem embarrassing at the time.

THINK OF AN ESCAPE ROUTE. If you had to leave quickly, how would you do it? Locate the windows, doors, and any other means of exiting the situation. Are there people around who might be able to help you? How can you get their attention? Where can you go when you leave?

If you have to find a way out of a situation where someone is pressuring you, or if something happens that you didn't consent to, it is not your fault. Take care of yourself, and know you're not alone.

To speak with someone who is trained to help, call the National Sexual Assault Hotline at 800.656.HOPE (4673) or chat online at online.rainn.org.

Performer Training Sexual Harassment

In Progress

A few years ago the California department of labor requested licensed talent agents to start providing their models with sexual harassment training. It was then I wrote up this guide for our industry to use. This is a 10-page document that you can download and keep with you for future reference. This guide will give you a better understanding of what sexual harassment is and what to do about it if you could do it if you experience it.

You can click here to download this pdf.

Sexual harassment is only one type of harassment, and it, along with all other forms of harassment, should not be allowed in your workplace.

Harassment of any kind has no place in the workplace. If you're an employer subject to federal anti-discrimination laws, you have a legal obligation to provide a work environment that is free from intimidation, insult, or ridicule based on race, color, religion, gender, or national origin. You must also be concerned with preventing harassment because you can sometimes be sued in state courts, depending on your state's anti-discrimination laws.

Therefore, take steps to prevent and deal with sexual and other types of harassment in your workplace because as an employer, you may be held liable for your own acts of harassment that affect employees in the workplace, as well as the acts of your managers, employees, and even harassment by customers, suppliers, and others who regularly do business with you.

HOW TO RESPOND IF SOMEONE IS PRESSURING YOU

Perpetrators of sexual violence often use tactics, such as guilt or intimidation, to pressure a person into something they do not want to do. It can be upsetting, frightening, or uncomfortable if you find yourself in this situation. Remember that it's not your fault that the other person is acting this way—they are responsible for their own actions. The following tips may help you exit the situation safely.

SOURCE: RAINN.ORG

REMINDE YOURSELF THIS ISN'T YOUR FAULT. You did not do anything wrong. It is the person who is pressuring you who is responsible.

TRUST YOUR GUT. Don't feel obligated to do anything you don't want to do. It doesn't matter why you don't want to do something. Simply not being interested is reason enough. Do only what feels right to you and what you are comfortable with.

HAVE A CODE WORD. Develop a code with friends or family that means "I'm uncomfortable" or "I need help." It could be a series of numbers you can text, like "311." It might be a phrase you say out loud such as, "I wish we took more vacations." This way you can communicate your concern and get help without alerting the person who is pressuring you.

IT'S OKAY TO LIE. If you are concerned about angering or upsetting this person, you can lie or make an excuse to create an exit. It may feel wrong to lie, but you are never obligated to remain in a situation that makes you feel uncomfortable, scared, or threatened. Some excuses you could use are: needing to take care of a friend or family member, not feeling well, and having to be somewhere else by a certain time. Even excusing yourself to use the bathroom can create an opportunity to get away or to get help. Whatever you need to say to stay safe is okay—even if it may seem embarrassing at the time.

THINK OF AN ESCAPE ROUTE. If you had to leave quickly, how would you do it? Locate the windows, doors, and any other means of exiting the situation. Are there people around who might be able to help you? How can you get their attention? Where can you go when you leave?

If you have to find a way out of a situation where someone is pressuring you, or if something happens that you didn't consent to, it is not your fault. Take care of yourself, and know you're not alone.

To speak with someone who is trained to help, call the National Sexual Assault Hotline at 800.656.HOPE (4673) or chat online at online.rainn.org.

Talent Agents

Performer Training Talent Agents

IN PROGRESS

If you are new to the adult industry, you might want to consider working with a talent agent. All talent agents must be licensed by the State of California to legally work for you. You can click here to search the database to see if the one you are considering working with is legally licensed by the state. If an agent is not licensed by the state then their contract is not valid.

An agent's job is to get you work in movies. It's really a very simple concept but it can get complicated quickly.

You do not need a talent agent to work in the adult industry. If you are new however it may make finding jobs easier because they have connections to producers that you don't.

Working with an agent shouldn't be all that complicated but man does it seem to get that way quickly.

The first bit of advice I can give is never sign more than a one year contract but remember once you sign that contract, it's a legally binding document.

There was a female performer complaining about the money she had to pay to get out of her contract. About 7 years ago she had to pay $1,000 to end her contract. For some reason, despite all the time that has passed she is only now just complaining about it.

I couldn't help but wonder why, after all these years later was she so upset about it? I've followed her on twitter for years and in all that time, she's never once so much as mentioned the issue. Why now, 7 years later is she so upset? I mean the truth is, it's because her boyfriend hates her former agent so he's probably getting her to do this. But it did bring up a good subject – the subject of contracts in general.

There are many things to complain about when it comes to how some things in our industry is run, but this one has always sort of rubbed me the wrong way.

Why? Because you know going into a deal that you are signing a legal contract and the terms of said contract are defined in advance.

Contracts are not just done in the porn industry.

Ann Curry, for example, signed a three-year contract with NBC in 2012. They wanted to get rid of her but she had this contract and for them to get rid of her they had to pay her $10 million. Now her contract buyout was obviously more than any porn star contract would be worth, but the concept is still the same.

Whatever party wants out of their contract must be willing to buy it out.

A buyout clause or release clause is pretty standard in all contracts – with porn stars, movie stars, news anchors, and famous sports figures.

The buyout refers to a clause in a contract that imposes an obligation on another organization wishing to acquire the services of the person under contract to pay the (usually substantial) fee of the clause to the organization which issued the contract and currently works with.

In November of 2017, Cristiano Ronaldo wanted out of his contract so he could go from working with one team to another. The buyout for his contract was about a billion dollars. Basketball player Reggie Jackson agreed to an $80 million buyout of his contract with the Detroit Pistons so that he could sign with another team.

This kind of thing is extremely common in mainstream.

Porn stars, however, don't usually have such big buyouts. If they sign a contract and want out of it, they usually pay anywhere from $500 to $5,000 depending on the potential value of the girl in question.

We sign contracts for protection. When you want that protection you can refer to the contract. But when you want out of that contract, why are we so quick to demand all the points in the contract be ignored?

I try and warn every girl that I can, never sign a contract without first reading it fully and making sure you fully understand the fine points.

Never agree to sign a multi-year contract. You'd be surprised just how much can change in your life in a year. If you agree to sign a 1-year contract, you can go back and renew that contract a year later if you are both still happy. If not, you smile and part ways — no harm, no foul.

Always take a picture of every contract you sign and keep it. That way you can refer back to it later on. There was once a guy who signed a porn star to a performance agreement when it didn't go his way he changed the terms of the contract she had actually signed and then sued her when she tried to leave him. Always keep a copy! That way shady shit like this can't happen.

Know that if you sign a contract and later decide you don't want to be in that contract, you are going to have to stick to the terms of the contract for the full length of said contract, or be willing to buy your way out of it. It's just that simple.

What is Human Trafficking?

Performer Training What is Human Trafficking?

In Progress

The way to fight human trafficking is to know exactly what it is. So let's go over the basics.

There are two types of human trafficking – sex trafficking and labor trafficking.

While historically there have been inconsistencies and disagreements regarding the definition of human trafficking among politicians, practitioners, and scholars, however, for the purpose of this discussion, the legal definition of human trafficking set forth in the Trafficking Victims Protection Act of 2000 (TVPA) will be used.

In the TVPA, Congress defines severe forms of trafficking in persons as:

- a) Sex trafficking in which a commercial sex act is induced by force, fraud, or coercion, or in which the person induced to perform such act has not attained 18 years of age; or
- b) The recruitment, harboring, transportation, provision, or obtaining of a person for labor or services, through the use of force, fraud, or coercion for the purpose of subjection to involuntary servitude, peonage, debt bondage, or slavery.

Simply put, if someone tries to force you or coerce you into doing something against your will that is a crime.

The difference between sex trafficking and sexual assault is very small. Sex trafficking is when a commercial sex act is induced by force, fraud, or coercion. Sexual assault is when a sex act is induced by force, fraud, or coercion.

If someone has to trick you, force you or coerce you to do so something, then it's wrong.

If you feel you are being abused or exploited, you should reach out to one of the adult industry advocacy group – this includes The Free Speech Coalition and The Adult Performers Actors Guild. There is help out there. You just need to reach out and let someone know what is going on. Don't be afraid. You are not alone.

If you would like more information on Human Trafficking, you can click here to download the document provided by the US Department of Health and Human Services, as well as the Office of the Assistant Secretary for Planning and Evaluation, which gives a far more expansive look at Human Trafficking.

What is Syphilis? Syphilis is a sexually transmitted disease that affects the skin and mucous membrane of the external genitalia, and also sometimes the mouth. It is caused by the bacterium Treponema pallidum.

Herpes

Performer Training Herpes

In Progress

What is herpes? Herpes is a virus causing sores most commonly around the mouth (oral herpes) and genitals (genital herpes). Watching this video will allow you to learn more about herpes.

Gonorrhea

Performer Training Gonorrhea

In Progress

About 800,000 people get the STD gonorrhea each year. Here are the symptoms and how it's treated.

Gonorrhea is a sexually transmitted disease (STD) that can infect both men and women. It can cause infections in the genitals, rectum, and throat. It is a very common infection, especially among young people ages 15-24 years.

You can get gonorrhea by having vaginal, anal, or oral sex with someone who has gonorrhea

The only way to avoid STDs is to not have vaginal, anal, or oral sex.

If you are sexually active, you can do the following things to lower your chances of getting gonorrhea:

- Being in a long-term mutually monogamous relationship with a partner who has been tested and has negative STD test results;
- Using latex condoms the right way every time you have sex.

How do I know if I have gonorrhea?

Some men with gonorrhea may have no symptoms at all. However, men who do have symptoms may have:

- A burning sensation when urinating;
- A white, yellow, or green discharge from the penis;
- Painful or swollen testicles (although this is less common).

Most women with gonorrhea do not have any symptoms. Even when a woman has symptoms, they are often mild and can be mistaken for a bladder or vaginal infection. Women with gonorrhea are at risk of developing serious complications from the infection, even if they don't have any symptoms.

Symptoms in women can include:

- Painful or burning sensation when urinating;
- Increased vaginal discharge;
- Vaginal bleeding between periods.

Rectal infections may either cause no symptoms or cause symptoms in both men and women that may include:

- Discharge;
- Anal itching;
- Soreness;

- Bleeding;
- Painful bowel movements.

You should be examined by your doctor if you notice any of these symptoms or if your partner has an STD or symptoms of an STD, such as an unusual sore, a smelly discharge, burning when urinating, or bleeding between periods.

Chlamydia is one of the most common sexually transmitted diseases in the U.S. Oftentimes there are no symptoms, which makes it easily spread to sexual partners. Watching this video will help you understand more about Chlamydia.

How is chlamydia spread?

- You can get chlamydia by having vaginal, anal, or oral sex with someone who has chlamydia.
- If your sex partner is male you can still get chlamydia even if he does not ejaculate (cum).
- If you've had chlamydia and were treated in the past, you can still get infected again. This can happen if you have unprotected sex with someone who has chlamydia.

How do I know if I have chlamydia?

Most people who have chlamydia have no symptoms. If you do have symptoms, they may not appear until several weeks after you have sex with an infected partner. Even when chlamydia causes no symptoms, it can damage your reproductive system.

Women with symptoms may notice

- An abnormal vaginal discharge;
- A burning sensation when urinating.

Symptoms in men can include

- A discharge from their penis;
- A burning sensation when urinating;
- Pain and swelling in one or both testicles (although this is less common).

Men and women can also get infected with chlamydia in their rectum. This happens either by having receptive anal sex, or by spread from another infected site (such as the vagina). While these infections often cause no symptoms, they can cause

- Rectal pain;
- Discharge;
- Bleeding.

You should be examined by your doctor if you notice any of these symptoms or if your partner has an STD or symptoms of an STD. STD symptoms can include an unusual sore, a smelly discharge, burning when urinating, or bleeding between periods.

HIV

Performer Training HIV

In Progress

What are HIV & AIDS? HIV, or human immunodeficiency virus, is a type of virus that infects human immune cells. Over time, immune cells are lost, which weakens the immune system and allows patients to be infected by other viruses and develop several types of tumors.

Watching this video will help you understand more about HIV.

Contracting the human immunodeficiency virus, or HIV is no longer seen as a death sentence in developed countries, which have the resources to treat it. Still, millions of people around the world contract HIV and die of the last stage of the virus's infection: acquired immunodeficiency syndrome, or AIDS.

According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), an estimated 1.1 million Americans over the age of 13 were living with HIV at the end of 2014.

Anyone can get HIV – men, women, straight, or gay.

When HIV and AIDS first appeared, AIDS was given other names, including "gay cancer" and GRID, which stood for gay-related immune deficiency. These names have since been abandoned because it's now recognized that anyone can be infected with HIV. In the United States, gay, bisexual, and other men who have sex with men continue to be at the greatest risk for HIV infection, but men and women who have heterosexual sex are also vulnerable, accounting for 20 percent of new HIV infections, the CDC reports.

And the virus continues to be spread through sharing drug paraphernalia (such as needles) with people who are HIV-infected. Certain racial or ethnic groups in the United States are more widely affected. African-Americans make up only about 12 percent of the population but account for nearly half of the people in the country living with HIV, according to the CDC. The bulk of new HIV diagnoses among African-Americans are men who are gay or bisexual.

Before 1996, contracting HIV was basically a death sentence. But then, over the course of the next two decades, a regimen of drugs known as antiretroviral therapy (ART) evolved and came into use. This drug regimen helps prevent the virus from replicating and can help keep the infection from causing AIDS, transforming a fatal disease into a manageable one. “These drugs have been an amazing scientific advancement,” Dr. Santiago says. “Most of the people who die nowadays are those who are unaware they have [AIDS] until symptoms become severe.” Even people who think they may have been exposed to HIV have options — if they act very quickly. The CDC advises you to alert your healthcare provider and start a regimen of ART medicines called post-exposure prophylaxis (PEP) within 72 hours.

Despite medical advances, HIV/AIDS is still a huge (and sometimes overlooked) problem.

More than 1.1 million people are living with HIV in the United States today, but a staggering number of them — an estimated 1 in 7 — don’t know they’re infected, the CDC says.

HIV causes AIDS and interferes with the body’s ability to fight infections.

The virus can be transmitted through contact with infected blood, semen, or vaginal fluids.

Within a few weeks of HIV infection, flu-like symptoms such as fever, sore throat, and fatigue can occur. Then the disease is usually asymptomatic until it progresses to AIDS. AIDS symptoms include weight loss, fever or night sweats, fatigue, and recurrent infections.

No cure exists for AIDS, but strict adherence to antiretroviral therapy (ART) can dramatically slow the disease's progress, prevent secondary infections and complications, and prolong life.

Performer STD Tests

Performer Training Performer STD Tests

In Progress

Everyone in the adult industry must take a series of STD tests commonly called a "performer panel" every 14 days. Well, more specifically, if you are going to film a scene with another performer, you must have taken a test in the past 14 days.

These series of tests must be taken at an industry approved testing facility. To date there are currently three approved testing companies.

- Adult Industry Testing (AIT)
- Cutting Edge Testing (CET)
- Talent Testing Service (TTS)

CET charges $160 for their performer panel, AIT charges $140 and Talent Testing charges $155. Please note some are saying that AIT labs charge additional fees. So since I have no experience with them, I can't confirm if this is true or not. Most of the industry uses TTS and a few use CET. I don't even know anyone that uses AIT but since they are now "PASS approved" I will include them on the list.

CET's Performer Panel provides the following tests.

- HIV-1 RNA
 - HIV 5th Generation Antibody/Antigen
 - RPR
 - Trep-Sure
 - Hep Bs Antigen
 - Hep C Antibody
 - Chlamydia
 - Gonorrhea
-

Instagram

Performer Training Instagram

IN PROGRESS

Instagram has 1 billion users. While it's true they may not be adult performer friendly, you need to consider the use of Instagram as a necessary evil. You need an account on Instagram. You are doing yourself a major disservice if you don't have one. Unlike Twitter, Instagram's focus is on visual posts. Instagram is a photo and video sharing platform. When you pull up an Instagram feed you don't see what people are saying, instead, you are presented with a wall of photos. If someone likes one of the photos you posted, they click it to see what you said.

So it's important to keep in mind that when using Instagram you need to put your best foot forward. If your posted photo or video isn't visually appealing, then you aren't going to get their attention enough to click it to see what you said.

If you don't have an Instagram account, go set one up now. But when you do, take the time to optimize your bio. People are so busy obsessing over their photos and captions that they forget about one of the most critical pieces of their Instagram profile— their bio.

Your Instagram bio represents some seriously valuable real estate that can funnel a large number of visitors to your website. Only you have to be careful in just what single site you promote because remember, Instagram is anti-porn.

So the one link you should be advertising on your Instagram bio is a PG-rated one. But we'll get more into that later. For now, all you need to know is that your bio on your Instagram page is essential. You need to keep it clean and classy. You don't want to do anything to risk losing your account. Don't use obscene words or anything that might not be appropriate for children to see. Remember rule #1 when it comes to Instagram, keep it clean!

As an adult influencer, you need to be careful about what you say in your bio and the links you use. Instagram is not adult-friendly. You can't post nude photos or links to porn websites. Instagram does not play around. If you violate their rules, then they will delete your account. It's not a matter of if they will catch you, but when. Some of their rules are clear, some not so much. You have to be extra careful when it comes to using the Instagram platform. So let's go over some of the basics. Here is the exact wording from the Instagram website.

WE KNOW THAT THERE ARE TIMES WHEN PEOPLE MIGHT WANT TO SHARE NUDE IMAGES THAT ARE ARTISTIC OR CREATIVE IN NATURE, BUT FOR A VARIETY OF REASONS, WE DON'T ALLOW NUDITY ON INSTAGRAM. THIS INCLUDES PHOTOS, VIDEOS, AND SOME DIGITALLY-CREATED CONTENT THAT SHOW SEXUAL INTERCOURSE, GENITALS, AND CLOSE-UPS OF FULLY-NUDE BUTTOCKS. IT ALSO INCLUDES PHOTOS OF FEMALE NIPPLES.

They tell you in clear terms, no nudity. But what they don't say is that they also don't like photos that are sexual in nature, even if that photo doesn't technically include nudity. So here is the rule I suggest you use, keep everything you post PG rated – not PG-13. As hard as it is going to be, you need to tone down the sexy. To help you understand, I am going to post a few samples of what is and isn't acceptable. While I realize you get more likes if your photo is naughty, you have to remember that it will also be what could cost you your account. Don't put your account at risk over a single photo. It's just not worth it.

It's not always fair that they allow some people to post things that they don't allow those of us in the adult industry to post. But as the saying goes, life isn't fair. If you want to keep your Instagram account, don't post nudity of any kind, or any sort of photo or video that is sexual in nature. If your photo is meant to sexually titillate, then it's a no go for Instagram.

Look at this photo of Devon. Do you know why you can't post it on Instagram? There is no nudity. So what's the problem? It's clearly sexual in nature. Remember no sexual activity or implied sexuality. That's why this photo or one like it shouldn't be posted to your Instagram timeline. It might not get your account suspended, but it could. Instagram is too random with their rules so always err on the side of caution.

Do you know what's wrong with this photo?

Well, I would hope it would be obvious but just in case let me tell you because far too often girls in our industry post similar photos. Besides the fact that her bare ass cheeks are exposed, it also shows a little bit of her vagina. This photo and those like it are a big no-no on Instagram. I know butt's are popular, but they are also a very risky type of picture to post and will put your account at risk. If I can see your bare ass cheeks, then it's a no go!

DISCLAIMER: PLEASE NOTE THAT DEVON IS A REAL ADULT PERFORMER BUT SHE IN NO WAY DID ANYTHING NAUGHTY. I JUST HAPPEN TO HAVE LICENSED A BUNCH OF THESE PHOTOS OF HER, SO I AM ONLY USING HER AS AN EXAMPLE. I DON'T EVEN KNOW IF THE REAL DEVON HAS AN INSTAGRAM ACCOUNT. I'M ONLY USING THE PHOTOS OF HER FOR ILLUSTRATIVE PURPOSES.

Now let's look at the next three images. The first is probably okay. It's two girls just standing next to each other. The second photo is not okay because instead of just two girls in the same photo, it becomes sexual in nature once they stuck out their tongues and started to kiss. The last image isn't as easy to judge. Yes, it's a lot like the first photo, but Devon is looking at the brunette in what could possibly be considered a sexual look. I'm not sure that that particular photo would be a no-no, but since they are both wearing a sexy lace bra, if it were me, I would say always err on the side of caution.

What you decide to do is up to you, but if it were me, I wouldn't post #2 or #3. Remember no single photo is worth losing your entire Instagram account over.

Another one of the unspoken rules of Instagram applies to women who have large breasts. If you have larger breasts, don't post photos of yourself in a low-cut top. In the rules, they state that they don't allow close-ups of fully-nude buttocks.

This can mean photos of yourself in a sexy swimsuit. Even though you aren't nude if your butt cheeks are exposed, that could count as a violation of their rules. Yes, I realize that other people do it. But just because they do it doesn't mean you can too.

When you lose your Instagram account because you posted something naughty, you can't argue that someone else posted something worse. It doesn't work like that. Instagram doesn't care what others may or may not do.

They only care about what you do. Before you argue that this isn't fair, you are right. It's not. But it's also a reality. If you want to increase your earnings, then you need an

Instagram account, and the only way to ensure you keep your account is to play by their rules, even if some of their rules aren't clear or don't always apply to everyone equally.

LINKS

Now let's talk about your bio link. Instagram doesn't allow you to post clickable links in your posts. This is why the single link in your biography needs to be a good one. The problem? Instagram will delete your account if you link to adult content.

This means you can't link to your OnlyFans page, your FanCentro profile, or your membership website. This also means that you can't link to your Twitter profile if your Twitter timeline includes nudity. So what can you do? Well, some people have been creating a linktr.ee page. The problem with this is that it's not a page you can control, and Instagram is also catching on to this trick and deactivating these links.

As an alternative, I suggest going to a site like wix.com and creating a free account. There you can create a simple page, that includes a G RATED photo of yourself (fully clothed), a short bio about yourself, and a few links. This page is the one where you list all your social media profiles and link to your Only- Fans page or your FanCentro feed. Wix has a free option and remember you only need this to create a simple, single-page website (which they help you do really easily), to have a G-rated landing page for your Instagram profile. Check out my sample at klubkelli.wixsite.com/kelli.

Yes, as you start to earn more money you can buy your own domain and create a fun, G-rated landing page on your own (like go.kelli.net), but for now, consider wix.com a nice, free alternative.

Now that we have all the boring rules out of the way let's get down to the nitty-gritty.

You should be posting to Instagram once a day, every day, or at the very least 4 to 5 times per week. You don't need to post more than once a day on Instagram. It's not the same as twitter. Once a day is more than acceptable.

In addition to posting a single photo on your timeline, 4 to 5 times a week, create stories. Even if you are only posting a photo and putting some text over it. If you want to grow your following stories are a must. It's okay to post a story 2 to 3 times a day, every single day.

That algorithm for stories isn't the same as it is for your regular timeline, and it's one way to get your followers to keep you on their mind.

Remember, the whole point of using Instagram is to grow your brand's exposure. The more people who view your posts, the more likely they are to become a real fan – the kind that pays to join your other platforms or buys things from you like custom videos.

Promote Each Other!

Posting pictures alone won't be enough to help you grow your following. You also need to interact with others. Follow other adult performers on Instagram, and when they post something, comment on their post. Their fans could see that interaction and decide to start following you as well.

Talk to other adult performers like yourself and make a pact to promote each other. Take a photo of her and give her one of you, then you post to your story (she posts a story about you) saying FOLLOW MY FRIEND – and then tag each other in your stories. Do this with as many other performers as possible. This is a great way to get exposure.

Don't forget to use relevant hashtags when you post. But don't just use hashtags that everyone else is using, get creative.

When it comes to Instagram caption ideas, you need to look beyond the one-word, obvious hashtags. Sure, you want to use those, too, but mix it up and use hashtags to tell part of your story. Be funny, ironic, or outrageous.

Everyone's going to use hashtags like #love, #instagood, or #photooftheday. It's going to be hard to compete with all the other people posting with those. So, while you should use them just in case you get some exposure, you should also try adding your own, more creative hashtags that aren't used by everyone.

- Trichomoniasis

TTS's Performer Panel provides the following tests:

- HIV-1 NAT
- HIV Ag/Ab
- HBsAg
- Anti-HCV
- Chlamydia (Urine)
- Gonorrhea (Urine)
- Trichomonas Vaginalis
- Syphilis (RPR)
- TREP-SURE EIA

AIT's Performer Panel profiles the following tests:

- HIV – 1 NAT
- HIV 4th Gen AB (EIA)
- HBsAg
- Anti-HCV
- Chlamydia (Urine)
- Gonorrhea (Urine)
- Trichomonas Vaginalis
- Syphilis (RPR)
- TREP – SURE EIA

Once you take your test, you usually get your results in 24 hours. Assuming you are all clean (pass all of your tests), you are given a special document to take on set with you and share it with the producer and/or other performers. If you get your tests done at TTS there is a little bar code on your test allowing anyone you share it with to scan the bar code and check the validity of your test so you can just show up with a fake piece of paper faking your test results. YES THIS DOES HAPPEN. In fact, Mr. Marcus did this a few years ago and he infected multiple people with syphilis as a result and he not only got sued in a civil suit but also spent 30 days in jail for this.

Always verify the validity of any test results someone shows you. Never just trust someone.

The cost of testing can be expensive, especially considering you usually have to cover the cost yourself. But testing is important. Your health and safety is important.

Instagram

Performer Training Instagram

In Progress

Instagram has 1 billion users. While it's true they may not be adult performer friendly, you need to consider the use of Instagram as a necessary evil. You need an account on Instagram. You are doing yourself a major disservice if you don't have one. Unlike Twitter, Instagram's focus is on visual posts. Instagram is a photo and video sharing platform. When you pull up an Instagram feed you don't see what people are saying, instead, you are presented with a wall of photos. If someone likes one of the photos you posted, they click it to see what you said.

So it's important to keep in mind that when using Instagram you need to put your best foot forward. If your posted photo or video isn't visually appealing, then you aren't going to get their attention enough to click it to see what you said.

If you don't have an Instagram account, go set one up now. But when you do, take the time to optimize your bio. People are so busy obsessing over their photos and captions that they forget about one of the most critical pieces of their Instagram profile– their bio.

Your Instagram bio represents some seriously valuable real estate that can funnel a large number of visitors to your website. Only you have to be careful in just what single site you promote because remember, Instagram is anti-porn.

So the one link you should be advertising on your Instagram bio is a PG-rated one. But we'll get more into that later. For now, all you need to know is that your bio on your Instagram page is essential. You need to keep it clean and classy. You don't want to do anything to risk losing your account. Don't use obscene words or anything that might not be appropriate for children to see. Remember rule #1 when it comes to Instagram, keep it clean!

As an adult influencer, you need to be careful about what you say in your bio and the links you use. Instagram is not adult-friendly. You can't post nude photos or links to porn websites. Instagram does not play around. If you violate their rules, then they will delete your account. It's not a matter of if they will catch you, but when. Some of their rules are clear, some not so much. You have to be extra careful when it comes to using the Instagram platform. So let's go over some of the basics. Here is the exact wording from the Instagram website.

WE KNOW THAT THERE ARE TIMES WHEN PEOPLE MIGHT WANT TO SHARE NUDE IMAGES THAT ARE ARTISTIC OR CREATIVE IN NATURE, BUT FOR A VARIETY OF REASONS, WE DON'T ALLOW NUDITY ON INSTAGRAM. THIS INCLUDES PHOTOS, VIDEOS, AND SOME DIGITALLY-CREATED CONTENT THAT SHOW SEXUAL INTERCOURSE, GENITALS, AND CLOSE-UPS OF FULLY-NUDE BUTTOCKS. IT ALSO INCLUDES PHOTOS OF FEMALE NIPPLES.

They tell you in clear terms, no nudity. But what they don't say is that they also don't like photos that are sexual in nature, even if that photo doesn't technically include nudity. So here is the rule I suggest you use, keep everything you post PG rated – not PG-13. As hard as it is going to be, you need to tone down the sexy. To help you understand, I am going to post a few samples of what is and isn't acceptable. While I realize you get more likes if your photo is naughty, you have to remember that it will also be what could cost you your account. Don't put your account at risk over a single photo. It's just not worth it.

It's not always fair that they allow some people to post things that they don't allow those of us in the adult industry to post. But as the saying goes, life isn't fair. If you want to keep your Instagram account, don't post nudity of any kind, or any sort of photo or video that is sexual in nature. If your photo is meant to sexually titillate, then it's a no go for Instagram.

Look at this photo of Devon. Do you know why you can't post it on Instagram? There is no nudity. So what's the problem? It's clearly sexual in nature. Remember no sexual activity or implied sexuality. That's why this photo or one like it shouldn't be posted to your Instagram timeline. It might not get your account suspended, but it could. Instagram is too random with their rules so always err on the side of caution.

Do you know what's wrong with this photo?

Well, I would hope it would be obvious but just in case let me tell you because far too often girls in our industry post similar photos. Besides the fact that her bare ass cheeks are exposed, it also shows a little bit of her vagina. This photo and those like it are a big no-no on Instagram. I know butt's are popular, but they are also a very risky type of picture to post and will put your account at risk. If I can see your bare ass cheeks, then it's a no go!

DISCLAIMER: PLEASE NOTE THAT DEVON IS A REAL ADULT PERFORMER BUT SHE IN NO WAY DID ANYTHING NAUGHTY. I JUST HAPPEN TO HAVE LICENSED A BUNCH OF THESE PHOTOS OF HER, SO I AM ONLY USING HER AS AN EXAMPLE. I DON'T EVEN KNOW IF THE REAL DEVON HAS AN INSTAGRAM ACCOUNT. I'M ONLY USING THE PHOTOS OF HER FOR ILLUSTRATIVE PURPOSES.

Now let's look at the next three images. The first is probably okay. It's two girls just standing next to each other. The second photo is not okay because instead of just two girls in the same photo, it becomes sexual in nature once they stuck out their tongues and started to kiss. The last image isn't as easy to judge. Yes, it's a lot like the first photo, but Devon is looking at the brunette in what could possibly be considered a sexual look. I'm not sure that that particular photo would be a no-no, but since they are both wearing a sexy lace bra, if it were me, I would say always err on the side of caution.

What you decide to do is up to you, but if it were me, I wouldn't post #2 or #3. Remember no single photo is worth losing your entire Instagram account over.

Another one of the unspoken rules of Instagram applies to women who have large breasts. If you have larger breasts, don't post photos of yourself in a low-cut top. In the rules, they state that they don't allow close-ups of fully-nude buttocks.

This can mean photos of yourself in a sexy swimsuit. Even though you aren't nude if your butt cheeks are exposed, that could count as a violation of their rules. Yes, I realize that other people do it. But just because they do it doesn't mean you can too.

When you lose your Instagram account because you posted something naughty, you can't argue that someone else posted something worse. It doesn't work like that. Instagram doesn't care what others may or may not do.

They only care about what you do. Before you argue that this isn't fair, you are right. It's not. But it's also a reality. If you want to increase your earnings, then you need an Instagram account, and the only way to ensure you keep your account is to play by their rules, even if some of their rules aren't clear or don't always apply to everyone equally.

LINKS

Now let's talk about your bio link. Instagram doesn't allow you to post clickable links in your posts. This is why the single link in your biography needs to be a good one. The problem? Instagram will delete your account if you link to adult content.

This means you can't link to your OnlyFans page, your FanCentro profile, or your membership website. This also means that you can't link to your Twitter profile if your Twitter timeline includes nudity. So what can you do? Well, some people have been creating a linktr.ee page. The problem with this is that it's not a page you can control, and Instagram is also catching on to this trick and deactivating these links.

As an alternative, I suggest going to a site like wix.com and creating a free account. There you can create a simple page, that includes a G RATED photo of yourself (fully clothed), a short bio about yourself, and a few links. This page is the one where you list all your social media profiles and link to your Only- Fans page or your FanCentro feed. Wix has a free option and remember you only need this to create a simple, single-page website (which they help you do really easily), to have a G-rated landing page for your Instagram profile. Check out my sample at klubkelli.wixsite.com/kelli.

Yes, as you start to earn more money you can buy your own domain and create a fun, G-rated landing page on your own (like go.kelli.net), but for now, consider wix.com a nice, free alternative.

Now that we have all the boring rules out of the way let's get down to the nitty-gritty.

You should be posting to Instagram once a day, every day, or at the very least 4 to 5 times per week. You don't need to post more than once a day on Instagram. It's not the same as twitter. Once a day is more than acceptable.

In addition to posting a single photo on your timeline, 4 to 5 times a week, create stories. Even if you are only posting a photo and putting some text over it. If you want to grow your following stories are a must. It's okay to post a story 2 to 3 times a day, every single day.

That algorithm for stories isn't the same as it is for your regular timeline, and it's one way to get your followers to keep you on their mind.

Remember, the whole point of using Instagram is to grow your brand's exposure. The more people who view your posts, the more likely they are to become a real fan – the kind that pays to join your other platforms or buys things from you like custom videos.

Promote Each Other!

Posting pictures alone won't be enough to help you grow your following. You also need to interact with others. Follow other adult performers on Instagram, and when they post something, comment on their post. Their fans could see that interaction and decide to start following you as well.

Talk to other adult performers like yourself and make a pact to promote each other. Take a photo of her and give her one of you, then you post to your story (she posts a story about you) saying FOLLOW MY FRIEND – and then tag each other in your stories. Do this with as many other performers as possible. This is a great way to get exposure.

Don't forget to use relevant hashtags when you post. But don't just use hashtags that everyone else is using, get creative.

Instagram Discrimination

Performer Training Instagram Discrimination

In Progress

Hello! My name is Alana Evans. I'm the president of the Adult Performers Actors Guild. I wanted to take a moment of your time to talk about Instagram.

As an adult performer, you'll find that your Instagram account will be judged much harsher than anyone else's. I know the previous lesson touched on the rules and what you should and shouldn't post on your Instagram timeline. But I wanted to let you know that if you have been careful and did follow the rules and yet still got your account suspended, I'm here to help.

The union has been working closely with Instagram about the discrimination against adult performers. And although we can't promise anything, if you do lose your Instagram account we might be able to help you get it back.

To start the process you'll need to fill out a specific form at the union website. You can click here to do that now.

If you haven't lost your Instagram account, that's great. Just be conscious that people are always looking for an opportunity to report your account for even the smallest violation. So please be careful.

Unlike Instagram, Twitter is far more open-minded about what we are allowed to post on our timelines. In return, Twitter asks only one thing, and that is that your header and avatar are family-friendly – this means no nudity or implied sexuality and don't promote porn sites.

Your header and avatar should be very clean, very generic. Don't post anything naughty in your header, and that includes the promotion of pornographic websites. Twitter has graciously allowed us to be as naughty as we want to be in our timelines, so in return, respect their rule of no naughty things in your avatar or header.

There are times that a producer may come to you and ask you to promote your upcoming scene in your avatar. If that graphic includes nudity or anything too sexy or their logo then the answer should be NO. What you can offer in return is to promote it on your pinned tweet. NEVER PROMOTE PORN IN YOUR HEADER IMAGE.

You should be posting on your Twitter timeline at least five times a day, every single day. Yes, that means seven days a week. But don't worry, you can schedule these out.

Go to tweetdeck.twitter.com and use Twitter's free scheduling app to line up some posts. This way you don't have to be tied to your computer every single day.

Please note that Twitter will eventually be phasing Tweetdeck out and have started to introduce scheduling directly within the Twitter app itself. Some people have this feature, some do not. Everyone will eventually get it but for now, if you don't have it you can use Tweetdeck. For those who do have it, you'll find the schedule icon appear as shown in the graphic below.

You can use scheduling to ensure your Twitter timeline is active, even when you are busy doing other things.

This is not to say you need to post pictures of yourself or video clips 5 times a day. You could talk about other things like what you had for breakfast or what color you are thinking about painting your nails.

Be normal. Talk about normal, everything things. It's okay not to just talk about sex.

AVOID THE DRAMA

Twitter isn't your personal counselor. You don't need to bring your drama to the public. As hard as it can be sometimes, you should really try and keep your Twitter timeline free of negativity. Stay positive. Be positive. Spread love. Ignore the haters.

While posting consistently is important, it's also important to interact with the community. Follow other adult performers and comment on their posts. This is one of the best ways to get new followers. Now to be clear, I'm not saying you should spam other people's timelines but it's okay to actually comment saying something like how much you like them in an outfit or how pretty they look. Follow as many other adult performers as you can and comment on several of their posts every single day.

When it comes to Instagram caption ideas, you need to look beyond the one-word, obvious hashtags. Sure, you want to use those, too, but mix it up and use hashtags to tell part of your story. Be funny, ironic, or outrageous.

Everyone's going to use hashtags like #love, #instagood, or #photooftheday. It's going to be hard to compete with all the other people posting with those. So, while you should use them just in case you get some exposure, you should also try adding your own, more creative hashtags that aren't used by everyone.

Pornhub

Performer Training Pornhub

IN PROGRESS

Right about now you might be asking yourself, why would add a section on the website PornHub under a lesson on social media. There is a very good reason for it. It's because PornHub is a great way to help you grow your social media following.

PornHub is one of the most visited websites in the world, with over 115 million people visiting the PornHub website a day. That's up from the 92 million visitors a day the previous year. That means that Pornhub is potentially a huge source of traffic for you. Pornhub could help you build your fanbase. Simply put, the more fans you have, the more money you are going to make.

While marketing experts love to point out the obvious, that people who visit Pornhub are looking for free porn and aren't looking to buy anything — and while that may be true, that doesn't mean that the website won't give you the opportunity to grow your fanbase and get more exposure.

You would be absolutely crazy not to take advantage of the Pornhub platform to grow your brand.

Imagine some guy goes on Pornhub looking for his free porn. While he's there he runs across a video clip of you. He has never seen you before and he's like, hey who is this? He then clicks on your profile page on Pornhub and sees that you have a Twitter and Instagram account. He clicks those links and starts following you. Now you've just used Pornhub to expand your exposure.

The first thing you need to do is visit the Pornhub website and set up your account. Next, you will want to get verified by following the listed instructions on their website.

Once your account is verified, you'll get a little blue checkmark next to your name, showing others that visit the Pornhub website you are the real deal.

Next, make sure that you fill out your biography and add links to all your social media platforms including links to your official website and your OnlyFans page.

As you grow in popularity on Pornhub, more people will visit your Pornhub profile page and click those links. You need to log into Pornhub at least once a day every day. When you are online, the community page will show who is currently online and people do check that. Some random guy might see you online, click your profile page, and bam you just made a new fan.

Post a random photo or video clip to Pornhub every once and awhile.

This will keep your account active and help to boost your view count.

You don't need to post a lot of free content on Pornhub — just enough to get fans to click on your Pornhub profile, read your biography, and click your social media links. Pornhub is a great way to build your social media following.

Let's Talk "Content"

Performer Training Let's Talk "Content"

IN PROGRESS

Some models prefer to work for other companies, and others prefer to make their own — then again some do both. These people are called content creators. So what does that mean? Well, a content creator is someone who makes money by posting photos and/or videos of themselves. The photos and videos are the "content" and you are the creator of said content.

Before we get into all of this, I need to make one thing clear — the information provided is not to be misconstrued as legal or medical advice or a recommendation regarding any of the legal or medical issues or problems described herein.

LET'S START WITH THE LAW. THE LAW SAYS YOU HAVE TO BE 18 OR OVER IN THE UNITED STATES TO STAR IN ADULT CONTENT. THERE IS NEVER EVER AN EXCEPTION TO THIS RULE. SERIOUSLY NEVER EVER EVER. 18 OR OVER ONLY. PERIOD.

Just being over 18 isn't enough. You also have to be able to prove it. So if you are at home making content with your roommate, or a boyfriend, girlfriend, or whoever, that's great as long as they are 18 but you both have to document your age and keep a copy of these documents on your computer. This is the law and violating this law is serious business.

This paperwork which shows you are over 18 is commonly referred to as "2257 documentation". You need to have it on every person you work with.

Again let me be clear, you not only have to be over 18 to do porn you have to have the paperwork to prove it!

#1 Take a photo of your ID (or whoever you are filming with). Make sure you look at the picture and ensure the photo comes out clear and is fully readable. The only acceptable ID for the purposes of 2257 is a government-issued ID, which includes a photo, and that means the only thing that will work is driver's license, a state identification card, or a United States passport.

#2 Next, take a picture of that person holding a copy of that ID. These two photos will need to be kept forever and ever. You can't lose it, so be sure and keep these in a safe place on your computer. If you lose these images you can never use that content you created with that person ever again.

This is a federal law, and violation of the 2257 regulations can land you in jail. This is serious. In addition to needing a copy of their government-issued ID, you also need to have them sign a 2257 document. If you don't already have a blank copy of this document, you can go to www.sxe.cc/2257 to get yours.

This is provided free of charge courtesy of the APAG Union. You can follow them on twitter @APAGunion.

Keep a copy of the filled out 2257 form along with a copy of the IDs for every single person you film with (including yourself). Yes, as silly as it may sound, you need to have your own 2257 documentation on file for the scenes you film featuring yourself. In addition to your 2257 documents, you also need a model release. This is something you need for every scene, including your own. If you film a video of yourself, you may be asked to provide one of the paid platforms you post it on for a copy of that model release, even though it's a video of yourself.

GET LEGAL OR GET BUSTED!!

Make sure that your content is legal, and you aren't guilty of producing obscenity. Porn is legal – obscenity is not.

I'm always surprised just how many adult performers don't understand the law when it comes to producing their own content.

While it's true (for the most part), that pornography isn't illegal — however, obscenity is. There is a very fine line between what you can and can't do.

People in our industry have been arrested and gone to prison for producing content that is considered "obscene". It's very hard to define exactly what is or isn't obscenity, but it's your job to figure it out.

Obscenity refers to a narrow category of pornography that violates contemporary community standards.

I know that definition isn't very helpful, but it is how it's defined by law. The more practical answer is to avoid filming outrageous sexual acts including but not limited to things like anything with poop, urination, or blood.

You also need a model release of every other person that appears in your photos or videos, even if that person is your best friend, roommate, or your boyfriend. If you don't have a copy of a blank model release form, the APAG Union provides us with one of those as well. You can get one by going to www.sxe.cc/modelrelease. Remember, you need to have one signed for every person who has ever appeared in any video you've made or photo you've taken.

- Blank Model Release: sxe.cc/modelrelease
- Blank 2257 Form: sxe.cc/2257

The Art of the Unlock

Performer Training The Art of the Unlock

IN PROGRESS

Most of us today are making our money by selling content (photos and videos of ourselves) on OnlyFans. Don't get me wrong, starring in traditional movies is still great for building your brand, but when it comes to making the big bucks, it's all about those premium social media sites like OnlyFans.

When AI became a thing, I immediately saw the potential in it, helping content creators make more money by helping them craft better captions. The first thing I had to do, though, was gather a bunch of real captions that others have used. I went through thousands of real DMs sent out to fans on DM from content creators just like you and me, and I learned from that experience that it's obvious when you phone it in.

This is when I began talking to other creators and realized that sometimes it's just hard to think of something to say.

So today, I want to talk about your captions because they are important.

do you want to see more of my boobs

That's a real caption that was just sent out via a mass DM. Attached was a short video clip for $7. That caption was okay, but it could be so much better, and if it was better, you could get more unlocks (sales).

That's what this lesson is about today – making you more money with your content. It's not what you say, but how you say it.

The Art of Writing Captions

In the age of information overload, brevity is a powerful tool. The importance of crafting a compelling caption that successfully captures the essence of your message cannot be overstated. In marketing, this requires not only conciseness but also creativity, relevance, and persuasion. In this article, we will delve into the techniques for writing effective captions and discuss the essential role of compelling marketing copy.

Understanding the Role of Captions

Before diving into the strategies, it's crucial to grasp the role of captions. In the realm of marketing, captions serve multiple purposes: they provide context, deliver a marketing message, capture attention, drive engagement, and often act as a call to action. Whether it's on a social media post, an advertisement, or a product photo, an effective caption can be the difference between merely seen and genuinely noticed.

The Art of Brevity and Clarity

One of the fundamental principles of writing effective captions is balancing brevity with clarity. Captions are typically short, and thus, every word must pull its weight. The goal is to convey your message concisely without losing its essence or leading to misinterpretation.

Make It Relevant and Relatable

It's not enough for your caption to be brief and clear; it must also resonate with your audience. Use language, tone, and references that your target audience will understand and relate to. By ensuring your captions are audience-centric, you can cultivate a deeper connection and foster brand loyalty.

Injecting Creativity and Personality

Unleashing your creativity is crucial in caption writing. This can involve the use of humor, wit, wordplay, or other creative elements to make your captions more engaging and memorable. Your brand's personality should shine through your captions, reflecting your values, voice, and character.

Crafting a Strong Call-to-Action (CTA)

An effective caption often contains a strong CTA. Your audience should know exactly what you want them to do after reading your caption. Whether it's clicking a link, making a purchase, or sharing your content, make your CTA clear, compelling, and easy to follow.

The Power of Testing and Iteration

Lastly, it's essential to test different caption strategies and continually iterate based on performance. Analyze the engagement and conversion rates of your captions, and adjust your approach based on the data. Caption writing is an ongoing process that improves with experimentation and learning.

Captions have become an integral part of marketing communication. They are more than just succinct summaries or witty phrases; they are strategic tools that, when used effectively, can significantly amplify your marketing efforts. Remember, the goal isn't just to write captions but to craft compelling narratives that resonate with your audience and move them to action. Embrace the art of caption writing, and watch your marketing efforts reach new heights.

10 tips for writing compelling captions

You can have the best content in the world, but if you don't have a great caption to go with it, what are the chances someone is going to buy it? While at Caption Queen, you can use the power of AI to write amazing captions, it doesn't mean you shouldn't learn more about how writing good captions works. Here are 10 tips to help you write great captions.

1. Understand your audience: Tailor your captions to resonate with your audience. Use language, tone, and references that they would relate to and understand.
2. Keep it clear and concise: Get your message across in as few words as possible. Avoid fluff and jargon. Brevity is key in caption writing.
3. Include a call-to-action (CTA): Encourage your audience to take a specific action, such as visiting your website, purchasing a product, or sharing your post. A compelling CTA can significantly improve your engagement rates.
4. Show your brand personality: Let your brand's voice shine through your captions. Whether your brand is fun, serious, inspirational, or quirky, your captions should reflect that.
5. Use humor or emotion when appropriate: Captions that evoke emotion or make people laugh can be very effective. However, be mindful not to force it, and make sure it aligns with your brand's voice.

6. Ask a question: This encourages interaction and engagement from your audience. It could be a thought-provoking question, a request for opinions, or a simple yes/no question related to your post.
7. Use emojis strategically: Emojis can add tone and personality to your captions, making them more engaging and relatable. But don't overdo it – use them where they naturally fit.
8. Add value: Whether it's an interesting fact, a helpful tip, or a thought-provoking insight, make sure your caption offers something of value to your audience.
9. Test and learn: Monitor your engagement rates and continually adjust your captions based on what's working and what's not. Don't be afraid to experiment with different styles, tones, and formats.
10. Proofread: A misspelling or grammatical error can undermine even the most clever caption. Always proofread your captions before posting to ensure they are error-free.

It's not what you say but how you say it!

I know I've mentioned this before, but it's true. Here is a caption that my assistant wrote for a video I was offering on my OnlyFans page — "He was stressed out so his boss decided to help her staff. Watch now only $3!"

Let's be honest, that's a horrible caption. Luckily for me, I run her stuff through Caption Queen and have it rewrite everything. Here's the AI's rewritten version of the caption.

The pressure was mounting, and his boss knew just what to do. She offered a calming solution to ease the tension. Soon, the team was back on track, and they were ready to tackle the next challenge.

But did it make a difference?

Well I looked at the original mass message, and 1.96% made the purchase. That's a horrible unlock rate. When it was re-sent out with the new caption, the sales ratio (those who unlocked/purchased the video) went up to 5.1%.

A good caption can drastically increase your sales.

I'm not saying you have to use a service like Caption Queen to rewrite your captions, but what I am saying is, you need to put in the effort to write a good caption.

It really does make all the difference in the world when it comes to getting subscribers to unlock those mass messages!

Paying a Photographer

Performer Training Paying a Photographer

IN PROGRESS

I want to remind you that I am not a lawyer and always suggest when it comes to anything of a legal nature you should consult an attorney. That being said, I want to share my experience with you about producing my own content.

The way copyright law works, whoever takes the photo (or video) owns the copyright to said photo (or video), even if you paid that person to take that photo for you. That's why when you hire someone to film content for you, you need to make sure and have them sign a release transferring the rights from them to you.

CLICK HERE TO DOWNLOAD A SAMPLE PHOTOGRAPHER RELEASE.

A photographer work for hire agreement works just like a model release. You need to both sign it and you should keep a copy of that document with your other legal documents for the scene including your 2257 documentation.

Shooting Locations

Performer Training Shooting Locations

IN PROGRESS

I want to take yet another moment to remind you, I am not a lawyer and when it comes to anything legal, you should always consult a lawyer if you have questions. That being said, let's talk about the legalities of shooting content at various locations.

Over the years I've learned a few things about shooting content, the main things I learned about locations are that you can't shoot content outside. If you get caught you could very well end up on the sex offenders registry.

Do you want to have to explain to future employers or your parents for that matter, why you're a registered sex offender?

To avoid this, don't shoot content outdoors. Seriously. Ever. Not in parks, not on public transportation, not on the side of the road, or in a parking lot.

The other thing you need to know is that it's not legal to shoot in a location without a commercial release. If you get caught they could sue you. Although it doesn't always happen, sometimes it does. In the case of Mile High Media. One of their directors, a lady by the name of Nica Noella rented a house, pretending it was to vacation in, while in reality, she used that house to shoot a series of adult movies.

The owner found out and was understandably upset. She filed a lawsuit that cost the company a crazy amount of money to defend. What we learned from this lawsuit is that the owner of the house was an artist and in the rental property, she displayed several of her own paintings. These paintings were captured on film when Nica Noella and her crew filmed their scenes. This violated the artist's copyright and that issue alone, if the homeowner wins her ongoing case, could cost the production company $250,000 per violation.

This lawsuit has been going on for about two years now. I can't imagine how much money the production company has had to spend to defend themselves. Don't get yourself in this situation. If you ever film in a location that isn't your own home, at the very least make sure there are no identifiable artworks out.

Background Music

Performer Training Background Music

IN PROGRESS

If you were to paint a picture and hang it up for all the world to see your masterpiece, it would probably upset you if someone stole it and hung it up in their house, right?

Well, that's what today's lesson is about. When a musician creates a piece of music, they own the rights to that song. If you don't license the use of that song you can't use it. Period.

It's very expensive to license popular songs. It could easily cost $30,000 to $50,000. And even worse, if you get caught using a piece of music without the proper license it can cost you $250,000 per violation.

That's just the default judgment. So long story short, no matter how much you want to record yourself dancing to your favorite song – don't do it.

There are entire companies dedicated to doing nothing but finding people who illegally use music in their videos online. They make their money off of the legal filings against you. And let's just say it's a big business. So don't think you won't get caught – trust me, you will.

If you need some sort of music look online for "royalty-free music" options. You can google this and find a selection of music. Okay not exactly the best music ever, but it's the only way to stay out of trouble.

Obscenity

Performer Training Obscenity

IN PROGRESS

There is a fine line between what is and isn't legal in terms of producing content. I want to talk to you about that today in hopes of keeping you out of jail. Creating pornography (for the most part is legal). What's not legal is obscenity.

But what is obscene?

That's sort of the big question ... the supreme court says they may not be able to define it, but they know it when they see it. And it's that ruling that we have to pay attention to. Because what may be obscene in Provo, Utah may not be as bothersome in New York City. Obscenity is defined by a jury of your peers – your friends and neighbors in the location that the trial is taking place.

Today's lesson is about knowing the difference between what you should and shouldn't produce in terms of content.

If you want to stay out of jail, then this lesson above all else is one you should pay close attention to.

I'm always surprised just how many adult performers don't understand the law when it comes to producing their own content. While it's true (for the most part), that pornography isn't illegal — however, obscenity is. There is a very fine line between what you can and can't do.

People in our industry have been arrested and gone to prison for producing content that is considered "obscene". It's very hard to define exactly what is or isn't obscenity, but it's your job to figure it out.

Obscenity refers to a narrow category of pornography that violates contemporary community standards.

I know that definition isn't very helpful, but it is how it's defined by law. The more practical answer is to avoid filming outrageous sexual acts including but not limited to things like anything with poop, urination, or blood.

Anything considered extreme should also be avoided. You also need to avoid topics such as rape or incest – yes, this means rape fantasies. While I realize this is a very popular theme in romance novels and erotica, the printed word isn't the same as videos, so avoid these subjects at all costs.

Again I want to make it clear I'm not a lawyer. The information I'm providing for you here comes from my more than twenty years in the adult industry. If you have some serious concerns or questions, consult an attorney.

No amount of money is worth going to jail. Seriously. So if anyone asks you to film something really extreme or out there, I would suggest saying thanks, but no thanks.

There was a movie released years ago called The People vs Larry Flynt. Although it was made by Hollywood for entertainment purposes, it's based on a real person and real laws.

The man was Larry Flynt, the owner of Hustler but it's the lawyer Paul Cambria that is most interesting. He's a real adult industry lawyer – a very expensive one, but a real porn industry lawyer all the same.

Based on his experiences working in the adult industry he came out with a list we call Cambria's List of Naughty No-Nos.

The list in itself is not a bible, it should really be considered more of a guide. Some of the sexual acts on the list are highly controversial in themselves but in the end, even if we don't think it's okay, these items are on the list for a reason and that reason is simple, every item on this list can pretty much guarantee a conviction for obscenity in various places throughout the US, especially in Southern states and apparently in many locals in Florida.

Some of the heated topics are no black men with white women, no male on male penetration, no bi-sexual acts, and no transsexuals at all.

- no shots with the appearance of pain or degradation
- no facials (body shots are ok if the shot is not nasty)
- no bukakke (ie: 10 guys coming on one girl)
- no spitting or saliva mouth to mouth
- no food used as sex objects
- no peeing unless in a natural setting (field, roadside)
- no coffins
- no blindfolds
- no wax dripping
- no two dicks in/near one mouth
- no shots of stretching pussy
- no fisting
- no squirting
- no bondage or bondage type toys or gear unless very light
- no girls sharing same dildo (in mouth or pussy)
- toys are okay if the shot is not nasty
- no hands from 2 different people fingering the same girl
- no male/male penetration
- no transsexuals
- no bi-sex

- no degrading dialogue (suck this cock bitch)
- no slapping her face with penis
- no menstruation topics (women on the rag)
- no incest topics
- no forced sex, rape themes, etc.
- no black men, white women themes

Some of the things on this list are more serious than others. For example, you are probably more likely to be a target if you feature a site about rape, even if it is simulated, as compared to like two men fingering a girl at the same time with a banana.

In the end, you have to ask yourself, how much risk are you really willing to take?

I know that you are going to look at that list and go fuck that, it's perfectly okay to shoot a movie with a black guy and a white girl. And you're right. The list is racist and homophobic as fuck

But let me show you something ... take a look at this picture of a tiny little Piper Perri who is something like 4 foot 10, 76 pounds.

While in cities like LA or New York City, there might be no problem with this content. But you take this movie to a jury in a small town in Oklahoma, Kansas or Utah and all the sudden things change. Now you have to face generations of racism and this image goes from pornography to obscenity.

I'm not saying don't do IR or don't do anything for that matter, what I am saying is that you need to think about the content you are producing before you do it and consider the consequences of those actions.

Is whatever you are about to film really worth going to jail for?

Today's productions have to concern themselves less with the actual law and more with credit card company's regulations. Because without credit card companies we can't make money off of our content so we have to agree to their rules, no matter what the law may or may not say.

These are a list of words that we can't use. If you can't use the word then it probably means you shouldn't be producing content of that nature.

Rape, Raped, Rapable, R-a-p-e, Rapeable, Raper, Rapes, Raping, Rapist, Reipu, Rpae, Force, Forceable, Forceful, forcefully, Forcer, Forces, Forcible, Forcing, Forcibly, Forced, Piss, Pissing, Pee, Peeing, Defecation, Peto, Peto, Pre-teen, Pedophile, Child like, Childhood, Childlike, Children, Infancy, Infant, Infant like, Infanthood, Infantlike, Infants, Minor, Paedophile, Paedophilia, Paedophiliac, Pedophile, Pedophiliac, Peta, Petafile, Petaphile, Preteen, Seventeen, Sixteen, Under age, Under aged, Under-age, Underaged, Young teen, Young teens, lolicon, 6teen, 7teen, Incest, Incestuous, Incestus, Brother, Dad, Daddies, Daddy, Daughter, Father, Sister, Son, Law enforcement, Mama, Mammi, Mammy, Mom, Mother, Animal, Bestiality, Underage, Child, Kid, Kids, Lolita, Zoo, Scat, Jail bait, Young+Teen, Tied, Hammered, Chains, Crime, Abduct, Abducted, Abduction, Asleep, Sleep, Sleeping, Sleeps, Slept, Nap, Dream, Kidnap, Kidnaped, Kidnaping, Kidnaping, Kidnaped, Kidnapping, Murder, Murdered, Murderer, Murdering, Murders, Violate, Violated, Violates, Violating, Violation, Violence, Violent, Asphyxia, Asphyxiate, Asphyxiated, Asphyxiates, Asphyxiating, Asphyxiation, Gagged, Tentacles, Tenicles, Tentacle, Tentacles, Alien, Animals, Barn, Beast, Farm, Monster, Illegal, Counterfeit, Pharm, Pharmacy, Prescription, Family, Poo, Hate, Loaded, Puke, Puked, Pukes, Puking, Vomit, Vomited, Vomiting, Vomits, Wake, Gamble, Gambling, Escort, Golden showers, Urine, Watersports, Gun, Knife, Sword, Hypno, Hypnosis, Hypnotised, Hypnotism, Hypnotize, Hypnotized, Hypnotizes, Hypnotizing, Pass out, Passed out, Passing out, Sedate, Sedated, Sedately, Sedateness, Sedates, Sedating, Sedation, Unconscious, Unconsciousness, Unwilling, Unwillingly, Unwillingness, Incest, Molest, Molestation, Molested, Molester, Molesting, Molests, Celebrity, Enema, Blood, Bled, Bleed, Bleeding, Bleeds, Chloroformed, Chloroform, Chloro, Chloroformic, Chloroforming, Chloroformism, Chloroforms, Brutality, Brutal, Brutalisation, Brutalization, Brutalize, Brutalized, Brutalizes, Brutalizing, Brutally, Mutilation, Mutilating, Mutilator, Mutilate, Mutilated, Mutilates, Scatophilia, Tipsy, Drink, Beer, Drunk, Drunken, Drunkenly, Drunkenness, Liquor, Liquor, Vodka, Wasted, Drug, Drugs, Drugged, Drugging, Intoxicate, Intoxicated, Intoxicating, Intoxication, Incapacitated, Pedophilia, Necrophilia, Bestiality, Zoophile, Zoophilic, Torture, Spank, Spanking, Suffocate

In addition to the obvious subjects, you should avoid such as rape, children, even pretending to rape someone or be underage – there is also the issue of public nudity. Yes even pretending to be under 18 or pretending to rape someone or pretending to blackmail someone can land you in jail!! Anyway back to public nudity — Almost every community prohibits public nudity. Filming in public places could not only get you arrested but in many cases, it also requires that if caught, you will be required to register as a sex offender – sometimes for ten years, sometimes for life. Do not have sex or film yourself in sexual situations in public. Just trust me on this — avoid doing this. Yes, this also includes filming yourself urinating in a public place. I mean it should be obvious that this kind of thing would be a bad idea but I've seen people do it before so let me just say now, avoid doing it at all costs. Seriously. It's a really bad idea.

You may look at this list and go, this is stupid. What's wrong with the word sleep or asleep? Well because remember if a person isn't awake then they can't consent. If a person can't consent to something then you've just raped or sexually assault them.

Issues of Immigration

Performer Training Issues of Immigration

IN PROGRESS

The issue of immigration is a complicated one but it's something you need to understand at least the basics of as a content creator because if you violate the immigration rules it can have serious legal consequences.

To legally work in the United States a person must be a US citizen or have a valid work permit issued by the US immigration department. These are almost never given for those in the adult industry.

If you aren't from the US you can't legally work here without proper paperwork, which includes that valid work visa.

Now here is where things get complicated. If you (as a content creator) work with someone without a valid work Visa, you face the legal consequences which can include jail time and the inability to use that content you created.

The other problem you have is this, to cover yourself under the 2257 regulations (that rule that says a person must be over 18 to do porn and have the proper ID to prove it), well under the 2257 rules, the only valid acceptable ID is a US government-issued ID, this includes a driver's license, a state-issued ID or a US-issued passport. So if someone is from another country they won't probably have any of these IDs so therefore you don't have valid 2257 documentation for any scene you do with them.

Yes, I realize they may have a passport from their home country but technically speaking if you are producing that content in the United States, that foreign passport isn't acceptable. This is why some girls who come to America to work from a foreign country, even if they are even here for only a few months, they typically get a US state driver's license or state ID.

Anyway, I'm not an immigration attorney so I suggest you consult one before working with anyone in porn who is from a foreign country.

Paid Platforms – OnlyFans

Performer Training Paid Platforms – OnlyFans

In Progress

Now we are going to discuss the various platforms that you'll be using to make your money. To start with you are going to need five accounts. If you don't already have all of the five accounts listed below, go ahead and sign up for that particular service now.

- OnlyFans
- ModelCentro
- AVN Stars
- FanCentro
- SextPanther

OnlyFans

OnlyFans has become the gold standard when it comes to performers making money on their own. How it works is pretty simple — You set up an account and then fans pay to see what you post. It works pretty much like Twitter. Only to be able to read what you've posted, a person has to pay. How much you the person pays is up to you. It can be as low as $4.99 or as high as $49.99 a month.

How much to charge is a hotly debated subject. Some people will argue that if you charge less, you'll get more subscribers. While others will argue that if you charge more, you'll get more loyal subscribers that will stay around longer so you'll make more money in the long run.

While both of these arguments have their merits, the question is, what is right for you? That's going to have to be something you decide on your own. What's right for me may not work for you.

I personally say charge between $15 and $30 a month for access to your OnlyFans and then work to make sure that your fans are getting value for your money. Post content often, respond to DMs, and do live shows on OnlyFans. In the end, you can charge whatever YOU feel is appropriate for the amount of content and the quality of the content you post.

Just know that you should pick an amount and stick with it. The more you start changing the fees, the more it will cause you problems later on. Some people have reported that when they set an amount and then later reduced the monthly rate, all of their current customers no longer got rebilled. So they lost hundreds of customers and while a few did eventually re-subscribe, many did not. So long story short, pick an amount you want to charge per month, and stick with it.

Mass Messages

In addition to the monthly fees, you can make money by sending private messages to fans that they can choose to open and read for a set amount of money or decline. If they don't read it then they don't have to pay.

You should send out about 3 of these mass messages per month. Consider this bonus content that fans don't have to pay for if they don't want it. But those who do pay can really add up!

Be careful when picking an amount to charge. The minimum you can charge is $3.

That's fine for a couple of pictures. If you are going to send out a short video clip, up to $8 is probably fine. Just remember that if your fans feel they aren't getting value for their money they might feel offended and possibly even cancel their recurring subscription. That's the last thing you want, so make sure that when you do send out a mass message to your fans, that what you are offering is worth the price you are asking.

Tips From Fans

The next way to earn money with OnlyFans is through tips. Sometimes fans will tip you for something special they might request like a photo of your feet. Sometimes they tip you just because they appreciate the time you take to answer their messages.

While I admit it can be a daunting task to keep up with, especially as you grow in popularity, it's important to try. One of the appeals of sites like OnlyFans is that your fans get to connect with you personally.

If they just wanted to see you naked, they could join any random porn site that you've shot scenes with or check out pictures you've posted for free already on Twitter.

These guys are willing to pay for your OnlyFans because they want that connection with YOU. They want to know what you are doing during the day, what your favorite song is and what kind of food you like. Give them that personal experience and be genuine about it and you'll find those tips piling up.

Posting Updates

The key to making money on OnlyFans is not just getting new signups but also keeping the ones you have. To keep fans subscribing to your feed, you are going to need to post new content. CONTENT IS KING, and your fans can't get enough of it.

This doesn't mean you have to post full-blown scenes every day. An update can be a single picture or two. It can even be a 30-second video clip you took from your phone of you flashing your boobs.

How often should you post new updates? That's up to you. But you should try and update every day if you can.

Again, an update doesn't have to be a full-blown scene. Take a topless pic and tell your fans a naughty story to go with it. If you don't have fancy equipment, that's okay. Just do the best you can and create the best content you can. As long as you are honest and genuine with your fans, most of them will be happy.

If you have to buy anything, consider investing in a ring light. You can use your cell phone until you start making enough money to get a better camera. But good lighting is really something you can't do without. You can get a ring light at Amazon for \$35.

If you aren't able to get a ring light or some other sort of good lighting, try and film your photos and videos using the light of day. Open your window blinds and let the natural light shine in!

Setting Boundaries

Before moving on, I want to touch base on one last subject — the issue of rude fans. Sometimes you'll get a guy who is out of line. While it's important to take your job seriously, you don't have to put up with people disrespecting you or talking down to you. If someone says something that crosses the line, ignore them, and move on.

You don't even have to block them because then their membership gets canceled. By ignoring them, they keep paying that monthly fee and well, you can laugh all the way to the bank. You don't owe anyone anything. While you should try and share a part of you with your fans, don't feel like you ever have to do anything that makes you feel uncomfortable or degraded.

Someone once tipped a girl I work with $3. She thanked him for the tip, and then a few days later he messaged her that he regretted tipping her. I'm not sure what kind of response he expected, but she wasn't going to spend her time on someone who was rude. Instead, she just ignored the message and went on to the next one.

The sad truth is, sometimes people have no manners or can be verbally abusive. That's on them. You should just ignore them and focus instead on the ones who are happy to be a part of your life.

It's okay to say no. It's okay to set boundaries. You don't owe anyone anything. Just do the best you can do and that's all anyone could ever ask of you.

Paid Platforms – FanCentro

Performer Training Paid Platforms – FanCentro

In Progress

FanCentro is a platform owned by the same company that runs ModelCentro. However, FanCentro is a little different. FanCentro has two main features. On the one hand, it works like OnlyFans. This is your FanCentro Feed, but it also provides you with a way to charge fans for access to your Premium Snapchat. With your FanCentro account, you can offer one or the other or both.

The FanCentro Feed (as they call it) works exactly how OnlyFans works. You tell how much you want to charge, add your videos and photos and fans subscribe to your feed and get to view your content. The only main difference is that with FanCentro you are limited to 12 photos per post.

But besides that, it's pretty much just exactly like OnlyFans.

The other feature is where a lot of girls make a crazy amount of money — sometimes as much as they do with their OnlyFans. That is by selling access to their premium Snapchat. Snapchat is a video sharing platform. You can share private naughty videos for a price. FanCentro helps you manage that.

The downside of this is that Snapchat is not adult-friendly and they are constantly shutting down adult accounts when they find them. So while FanCentro can help you keep track of your premium subscribers it's not a system that has long term potential. However, there are girls who are making a killing using that platform so there is the short term cash grab that some consider worth the effort.

There are two parts to FanCentro – besides the ability to sell access to your Premium SnapChat, you can also use the FanCentro feed which works almost exactly like your OnlyFans does.

If you are going to use FanCentro, the one thing I would suggest is being honest with your fans and followers. When you fill out your bio, tell them exactly what you offer.

If you are only going to offer one video a month, tell the truth. If you are going to offer daily updates that works too. Just as long as you are upfront and honest, then everyone is on the same page. Here is a great example of a girl from FanCentro, that lets her fans know exactly what she offers in exchange for the $30 a month she charges.

Let's be sexy friends. Subscribe to my secret Snapchat! My premium is definitely one you do not want to miss out on. I film crazy, fun, and dirty shows EVERY WEEK. And trust me when I say nothing is off-limits! Come play with me and enjoy my weekly X rated adventures.

Like ModelCentro, FanCentro allows other adult website owners to promote your profile and make money as an affiliate. This means that if some website, say FreeOnes.com promotes you, you both make money. You get money because some guy subscribed to your feed and they get paid a small referral fee by FanCentro. This is a great way to increase your revenue by having others promote you. You can activate the feature under the promotion tab of your FanCentro account. From there click Promotion Offers and active CentroProfits Rev Share.

Paid Platforms – ModelCentro

Performer Training Paid Platforms – ModelCentro

IN PROGRESS

ModelCentro is a platform that allows you to create a traditional membership website for your fans. If you don't have a ModelCentro account yet, you can click here to set one up now.

What's nice about the ModelCentro platform is how easy they make it for you to have your own membership website. Once you create your account, you can pick from one of their standard design templates, and then customize it with your own photos, videos, and text.

A MEMBERSHIP WEBSITE IS LIKE ONLYFANS, ONLY BETTER ORGANIZED AND EASY TO NAVIGATE FOR YOUR FANS AND FOLLOWERS.

Once you pick how you want your website to look it's time to start uploading your content. The site is broken down into four main sections – photos, videos, blog posts, and live shows.

If you want to add a video for your fans to watch, click videos, then upload it. If you want to add new photos for your members, click photos, then upload your photos. It's really just that easy.

Some people may ask, why do I need a membership website if I have an OnlyFans account? And the answer to that is you don't really need one but there are some people who will prefer the traditional website over the OnlyFans timeline layout.

A website is easier to navigate and organize you content.

You can also add more photos per set in ModelCentro than you can with Onlyfans.

OnlyFans used to only allow you to upload 20 photos per post. Recently they've increased that to 40. But people often have sets that have 100+ photos. So, while your OnlyFans members get to see only 20 to 40 of those photo sets, your ModelCentro members will get to see them all.

Other than that one thing, you will be posting the exact same content on your OnlyFans that you do on your membership website. If you post a video on your OnlyFans timeline, you'll post that same video to your ModelCentro website. So that's why you should charge the same cost. Every site/platform you use will be the same, so charge the same for each.

Why do I have two identical sites on two different platforms? As I said before, because you never know what a fan prefers. Some fans just hate the way OnlyFans loads the timeline. For those guys they'll join my ModelCentro website instead and I don't miss out on a sale because they don't like one platform or another.

One of the other benefits of having ModelCentro handle your official membership website is a feature called CentroProfits. This is what is known as an affiliate program. This can increase your earnings drastically. There are about a zillion adult websites out there.

The owners of these websites are paid a commission if they promote your website. They are only paid if the person they refer actually joins your website.

Now don't worry you don't have to pay anything. This is done by ModelCentro on your behalf. I just wanted to make you aware of this feature because you have to manually activate it. Sites like FreeOnes.com and FameRegistry.com promote my website and send me quite a few new members each month. And I didn't have to do anything. To me, it's just free money.

To turn this feature on, once you are logged into your ModelCentro account select the Promotion tab from the top menu. Then when that page loads select Promotion Offers from the left. From there look for something that says "CentroProfits Rev Share" and then select details and setup.

What you are doing is saying hey, if you promote my official membership website, I'll share some of my revenue with you. Again there is pretty much nothing you have to do on your end other than activating the feature. But it's something you without a doubt want to consider. You might be surprised just how much extra money you make from these affiliates. It's like having your own sales force who works on commissions only.

They spend their days promoting your website and only get paid if they actually make a sale. And it's not anything you need to worry about because ModelCentro handles it all for you through their CentroProfits feature.

Paid Platforms – SextPanther

Performer Training Paid Platforms – SextPanther

IN PROGRESS

SextPanther is different than the other platforms we've talked about so far. This is a way for fans to communicate with you via phone calls and text messages. As you grow in popularity this platform can be a nice way to supplement your income.

Video Player

00:00
00:05

When you create your SextPanther account, you put in your real phone number. However, they don't give that out to your fans. They give a fake number which works sort of like call forwarding. Fans will never get your real number so don't worry about that.

Once you create your account and add your phone number, you then set your prices.

You'll tell the system how much you want a fan to pay to send you a text message. This is per message. So, if you charge $1 per text message and the fan sends you 5 messages, you earn $5. The minimum you can charge is $1 per message and the maximum is $5. You can set a price per picture you send or receive.

The minimum is $2.50, and the maximum is $10. So, if a fan wants to text you a picture the cost is – well whatever price you set.

Same concept with video clips. The minimum is $2.50 and the maximum you can charge is $20. This works both ways. If a fan wants to send you a video clip they are charged and if a fan wants to receive a video clip you sent them, then they pay that fee.

The biggest money you can make is by accepting actual calls from fans. This allows you to charge them anywhere from $1 to $10 per minute for that call. So say you charge $1 a minute and the fan calls you for 10 minutes, you just made $10 for ten minutes of work.

You don't have to accept phone calls if you aren't comfortable with that. But I do suggest you set up an account for text messages. You'd be surprised just how much you can make in a given month for texting fans. It's not all about sex either. Fans will want to talk to you about the most random of things. They might want to tell you about their day, their work, or a problem with their girlfriend. Many fans want advice about a relationship problem they are having.

I would say having a SextPanther account is a must. It adds to the ways your fans can get to know you and spend time with you. If a person wants one on one interaction with you, SextPanther will allow you to provide that.

Licensing Content

Performer Training Licensing Content

IN PROGRESS

Our final lesson under the "content" category is about licensing content. It's something I've been doing for years and didn't realize until recently that many performers aren't aware they can legally license some of the scenes they've been in for other companies.

Not all companies offer this but some do and it's a nice bonus to your fans to be able to provide them with all that extra content.

So here is how it works ... when a studio produces a scene, they not only offer it on their own website, but also for sale on DVD. Then once that scene has been out awhile they'll offer it up through content brokers like Adult Film Star Content, and let other website owners license the use of it.

This company deals with about 100 different studios that will let you pay to use the scenes you've done for them. Not every studio does this and if you are new to the adult industry then it's not likely any of your content will be available.

But it's worth taking a few minutes out of your day to find out if you have anything available.

For example, Audrey Hollander has been in like 1,000 movies. Not all of them are available but 48 of her scenes are, which includes photosets. So she simply selects the videos and photos she wants a copy of, and clicks ADD TO CART. Then once her purchase is complete they'll not only send her a copy of the content but also all the associated legal documents so that she can legally use these on her official website and her OnlyFans page.

Audrey Hollander has more than normal. Alana Evans for example only has 9 scenes available. But hey that's 9 scenes that she could offer her fans that she didn't have access to before. Tory Lane has 70 scenes available, but Victoria June didn't have any.

Now before you guy buying up all that content, wait. There is a way to get it like 50% to 75% off! What you do is go to Adult Film Star Content and create a free account. Then wait – and usually about once a week they mail out discount coupons in your email. Some times its 50% off, sometimes 60% and some weeks it's as much as 75% off!

That's a huge saving. It can mean that instead of paying $150 to license one of your scenes you'll only have to pay like $40!

I should note that you might want to check your spam box for their emails. I find mine lands in my spam box all the time for some reason.

Money and Taxes

Performer Training Money and Taxes

IN PROGRESS

A hard thing about working in porn is that you are responsible for the money you earn and it can be a little problematic because it's not always easy to set aside money for things like taxes and savings for industry downtimes.

Video Player

00:00
03:12

When you do a scene you get paid. However, all of that money shouldn't be spent. You need to take a percentage of it and put it into a savings account for your income taxes. I always suggest putting aside about 10% to 15%.

Now you need to take an additional 10% and put that into another savings account. Call it your emergency fund. This is for times when you can't work because you are sick, or injured or there is an industry shutdown.

It does happen from time to time. There were no productions from March of 2020 to the end of June 2020. That's 3 months without work. What would you do if that happened to you? Would you be able to survive without anyone hiring you to do scenes during that time?

This is why, no matter how hard it is you need to stash away at least 10% of every single penny you earn for emergencies.
